U. S. EXAMINES CONTRACT WITH COAL MINERS

Seeks Means of Heading Off Lewis' Threat of Strike Nov. 1.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—The justice department combed through the government's contract with the United Mine Workers today for a means of heading off the threatened Nov. 1 walkout by 400,000 soft coal miners.

The result conceivably could be an "out" for Secretary of the Interior Krug, who so far has insisted the contract is binding for as long as the government operates the mines.

John L. Lewis, the UMW chieftain, interprets the terms to permit termination of the contract unless Krug agrees to meet him next Friday for a discussion of higher wages. The miners' traditional policy is "no contract, no work" and next Friday is not only on the edge of winter but just four days away from the congressional elections.

Examines Contract

Attorney General Tom Clark assigned Solicitor General George Washington to examine the agreement Krug and Lewis signed May 29 to end a 59-day work stoppage. Clark said the justice department wanted to be ready with an opinion on which is right —Krug or Lewis—when asked.

A finding in favor of Lewis would furnish Krug with a good reason for cutting short his current western trip, now scheduled to continue until Nov. 6—five days after the Lewis deadline.

Krug said three days ago he was willing to talk to the UMW boss about the present contract, but not a new one, and that he would meet him either at Tule Lake, Calif., on Nov. 1 or at Washington after the trip ends.

President Truman has checked the problem up to Krug.

The Krug-Lewis contract, under which the interior department's coal mines administration has been running 2,300 mines since the government took them over, carries a clause stipulating that it covers employment conditions "during the period of government possession."

Right after that, however, it states that provisions of preceding contracts with the private operators remain in effect unless otherwise amended or stipulated. So Lewis says the termination clause of his last contract before the government took over still goes.

Following his strategy in negotiations last spring, Lewis has not specified his wage demands. The United Mine Workers Journal hinted editorially yesterday he may ask a 35-hour work week with no reduction in pay.

The miners now receive $75.25 for a 54-hour week.

GOERING HAD POISON ALWAYS, ARMY SAYS

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG, Oct. 26—Hermann Goering had suicide poison from the time of his capture, the four-power mission investigating his death reported today.

The commission did not say definitely where the No. 2 Nazi hid the poison with which he cheated the gallows on the eve of his scheduled execution.

An official announcement declared, however, "there is reason to support the view that at one time Goering could have carried the poison secreted in a cavity in his umbilical (navel)."

But the commission report declared definitely that the poison "was not there throughout his imprisonment," and said positively that "at some stage it was in his alimentary tract."

"An obscure recess in the inside of a toilet under an overhanging rim could have concealed a container for a time without detection except by extraordinary search," the report said.

Both Snow and Ninety Degree Heat Reported

By The Associated Press

The Chicago weather bureau reported snow on one side of the nation today and temperatures in the 90's on the other. The snow was 13 inches deep at Cut Bank, Mont. The colder weather was confined to the northwest down through San Francisco and eastward through Montana, Wyoming, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin. South and east of this section, the weather was fair and pleasant. In parts of Texas, California and Florida the temperature hit the 90's.

Agreement in Ship Walkout Reported

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—U. S. Conciliator Frederick Livingston today announced that an agreement had been reached between east and gulf coast ship operators and the striking AFL masters, mates and pilots.

Livingston announced the agreement at the office of the American Merchant Marine Institute.

He said it was subject to ratification by both the union and the operators before becoming formally effective.

Copies of the agreement were taken by members of the union to a membership meeting at Manhattan center.

Capt. Albert E. Volibe", chairman of the union's negotiating committee, said, "We have signed an agreement and all that has to be done now is to have it put before the membership for a vote."

AFL WINS IN OPS VOTE HERE

NLRB Announces Results of Balloting in Collective Bargaining Election.

The AFL won clear majorities in two separate elections held here recently by production and distribution workers of the Marion division of the Ohio Public Service Co., according to The Associated Press today in a report from the national labor relations board.

The separate elections were held among the company's 50 production workers and 57 distribution workers. The production workers gave the AFL operating engineers 30 votes, the AFL brotherhood 16 and the CIO utility workers one. No votes were cast for the listing "none."

Distribution Workers

Distribution workers gave the AFL brotherhood 46 votes, the CIO utility workers four and one vote was for neither. One vote was challenged.

The CIO Utility Workers of America, which suspended a strike among production workers of Ohio Public Service Co. at Warren until a collective bargaining election could be held, registered 80 of the 89 votes cast, the national labor relations board reported.

The nine votes went to the AFL International Union of Operating Engineers. Two votes were for neither union. There were 103 production workers eligible to vote.

In another election among distribution workers in the same city, the CIO union was defeated, 27 to 20, by the AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. There were 52 eligible to vote, three votes were for neither union and one ballot was challenged.

Run Off Election

A run-off will be necessary as the result of a tie among 215 eligible production workers of Ohio Public Service in Alliance, Mansfield, Lorain and Dilles Bottom (Belmont county). The AFL Operating Engineers and the CIO Utility Workers each received 88 votes. Fourteen votes were for neither union, one was void and three were challenged. Date for the run-off will be set later.

With the CIO Utility Workers and the AFL Brotherhood on the ballots, votes for neither union topped the returns among 309 eligible distribution workers at the company in Sandusky, Port Clinton, Bellevue, Vermilion, Elyria, Ashland, Norwalk, Akron, Massillon, Mansfield and Lorain. The vote for neither union, counted in July, the AFL Brotherhood [illegible] 88, and the CIO [illegible] void and eight votes challenged.

CLARK FIRES OFFICIAL WHO TOLD OF PLOT

Rogge Dismissed for Quoting from Records on Nazi Election Scheme.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—Attorney General Tom Clark accused O. John Rogge today of disclosing confidential information in a public address and dismissed him from the post of assistant to the attorney general.

In a crisp letter to Rogge, Clark declared "you wilfully violated" regulations by quoting from a department report in a speech detailing what Rogge said were Nazi schemes to defeat President Roosevelt in 1936, 1940 and 1944.

Clark said the information came from Rogge's own report on the wartime sedition cases against 30 Americans, which have been in abeyance since a mistrial in 1944.

The ousted official could not be reached for comment last night.

Rogge in a speech Tuesday night at Swarthmore college, said he had learned from captured Nazi documents and interviews with German officials that, among other things, before the 1940 election "the Nazis had a fantastic scheme to get John L. Lewis, the labor leader, to come out against the election of President Roosevelt.

Involved Goering

"This scheme involved Hermann Goering, a Nazi agent by the name of Joachim Hertslet, and William R. Davis, a promoter in the oil business." Davis, whose German and Mexican oil connections once were investigated by congress, died in 1941.

In his dismissal letter to Rogge, made public at the unusual hour of 12:30 a. m., Clark said: "It has come to my attention that you have made certain statements in a public address that could only come from your report filed with me" on the sedition cases. In the report, Clark noted, Rogge recommended the government nol pros (discontinue prosecuting) the cases.

"On the day before your speech at Swarthmore," Clark's letter continued, "and during our discussion in reference to newspaper stories appearing that morning, which claimed quotations of your report, you stated to me you had no intention of using the text or substance of your report in such speech and that it would be highly unethical to do so.

"Violated Rules"

"It therefore appears that you wilfully violated the long-standing rules and regulations of the department of justice and it becomes necessary for me to sever your connection with the department."

The dismissal was made effective at the close of business yesterday.

Rogge said in his Swarthmore speech:

"In our 1936, 1940 and 1944 Presidential elections," Rogge said, "the Nazis always preferred the one who opposed President Roosevelt.

"They preferred in turn Landon, Willke and Dewey. They had a strong preference for Dewey. They did not particularly like Willkie, but they felt that any President would be better for their purposes than President Roosevelt.

John L. Lewis, chief of the AFL United Mine Workers, declined to comment on Rogge's remarks about the asserted 1940 "scheme".

UN Chorus Challenges Russia To Reduce Use of Veto Power

London Gem Thieves Make $40,000 "Haul"

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Oct. 26—Daring jewel thieves have taken $40,000 in gems at the home of the Marchioness of Hartington, daughter of former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, Scotland Yard announced today, and made away with a rich loot in two other homes.

Gems and furs valued at $20,000 were stolen from an Orme Square home, and diamonds and heirlooms worth $3,200 were taken from the St. James palace home of Lady Piers Legh, another titled American woman.

Scotland Yard, still hunting for the wily cat burglar who stole $80,000 in gems from the Duke and Duchess of Windsor 10 days ago, noted a similarity in the crafty preparation and almost ghostlike entry in the new robberies.

Victim Is American

The victim of the St. James palace robbery is Lady Piers Legh, the former Sarah Polk of Nashville, Tenn., who married Sir Piers Legh, master of the king's household, in 1920. Sir Piers was equerry to the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales.

The thieves displayed the same exact foreknowledge which marked the recent burglaries at homes of famed Londoners. They left an open front door at Lady Hartington's residence. The household staff had last night off.

The personal maid of the 26-year-old marchioness told police of two mysterious telephone calls yesterday, one by "a man who spoke with an American accent." This man had asked for Lady Hartington's sister, saying he was a friend of hers, the maid said.

On the second call, she related, "I lifted up the receiver and said 'hello' a number of times. There was no answer, although I felt someone was listening to me."

Boudoir Rifled

A few minutes later the maid went out. Two hours later, when the housekeeper returned, Lady Hartington's boudoir had been rifled and her jewel case was missing. The rest of the house was untouched. Police believed the thieves crept through a window and left boldly through the front door.

Lady Hartington, second daughter of the former ambassador, is the war widow of the Marques of Huntington, son of the Duke of Devonshire. Her husband, a major in the Coldstream Guards whom she married in the spring of 1944, was killed in action in Europe four months later.

ASKS BASE PAY FOR TEACHERS

$2,000 Minimum Annual Salary Recommended by Ohio Association.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 26—A $20,000 minimum annual salary for qualified, full-time public school teachers throughout the state is recommended by the Northeastern Ohio Teachers association.

The resolution took notice of "closed classrooms, inadequately trained teachers and an increased birth rate tending to aggravate the situation," and added that salary increases would help alleviate teacher shortages resulting from low pay in the profession.

NEOTA also urged that a permanent and substantial increase in state funds be granted to public schools; that parents work for legislation to make the teaching profession more attractive; that national support of schools supplement that of state and local governments; that school programs be adjusted to meet the needs of veterans, and that teachers be exchanged between school districts.

Elected president of the NEOTA for 1947 was C. J. W. Luttrell, superintendent of schools at Lorain. He succeeds E. S. Kerr, superintendent of schools at Salem.

C. C. Tuck, principal of Cleveland's West Technical high school, was named vice president; Miss Ruth Skeeles, Canton, member of the executive committee, and Miss Florence Carey, Ashtabula, recording secretary.

The Southeastern Ohio Teachers association, meeting at Zanesville, heard Dr. Jerome Davis of New York, member of the U. S. government board of arbitration, assert that Russia now is spending more on schools than on its military organization.

The former Yale and Harvard professor also declared Russia "suffered so heavily in the past war that she is not in a position to fight again."

Hewetson Ault of Bellaire defeated John H. Evans of New Philadelphia for the SEAOTA's presidency. Paul H. Wright of Steubenville was elected vice president. The organization's secretary-treasurer will be named at a spring meeting.

Continue Drive To Reach Goal in Fund Campaign

Marion's Community Foundation campaign continued with vigor today as workers were out again in an effort to raise $67,180 before the final report meeting next Thursday night.

Pledges and cash already total nearly $25,000, with more than 35 per cent of the goal already reached. Workers are confident that next week larger amounts will come in as the campaign nears its end.

First report on the campaign was made Thursday night, when workers tabulated $24,038.36 in cash and pledges. Renewed efforts will be made next week with many industries and businesses winding up their solicitation program.

Workers in the county also are expected to bring in additional funds. The county goal is $4,000. No report on the amount collected in the county was made at the first report meeting Thursday night.

Funds are to be used to finance the 1947 programs of the Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Girl Reserves, Y.M.C.A., the Hospital and Medical Care fund and contribute Marion's share to the support of two national services, the USO and the United Seamen's organization.

Joseph T. Ferguson Speaks Here Monday

Joseph T. Ferguson, state auditor, will be principal speaker at a Democratic meeting Monday evening in the Democratic club headquarters on West Center street.

The program is being sponsored by the Marion county Democratic club and the Women's Democratic club. Mrs. Harry V. Armstrong of LaRue is general chairman in charge of the event.

The Women's Democratic club will serve a cafeteria supper beginning at 5:30 preceding the speaking program. County Democratic candidates are expected to be present.

U. S. SEIZURE OF TWA SEEN

Possibility Grows as Airline Pilots' Walkout Hits Snags.

By The Associated Press

The possibility of government seizure and operation of the strike-bound Trans-World Airlines arose today as a wage dispute remained deadlocked and there was little indication of early settlement of the costly work stoppage.

The management and the 1,400 striking pilots, after turning down a proposal that they resume flights on 28,000 miles of international routes, both expressed willingness for the government to take over the lines.

Conferences between the company and union officials with the national mediation board have failed to settle the six-day-old dispute. Board Chairman Frank Douglass was to meet today with Jack Frye, TWA president. The strike was called Monday by David L. Behncke, president of the AFL Air Lines Pilots association, and the company estimated it is losing $2,000,000 income weekly.

In Washington, the government acted to halt the threatened walkout of 400,000 AFL United Mine Workers next Friday, and in another major labor dispute and federal government offered a compromise proposal designed to end the Atlantic and Gulf coast strike of the CIO National Maritime Union.

FATE OF PEACE EFFORTS SEEN IN BALANCE

Soviet Reaction to Onslaught Held Vital to Future of Organization.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—A swelling chorus of United Nations demands challenged Russia today to reduce her frequent use of the veto power in the security council. Some delegates said Soviet reaction to the pressure would heavily influence the future success of the peace-enforcement agency.

The veto issue overshadows all others and has marked the clear line of conflict between Russia and the Western powers as initial sessions of the UN assembly pushed through a lengthy round of speech-making preparatory to coming to grips with specific problems next week.

Another session of oratory was slated today with speeches from the delegates of Chile, Norway, Liberia and Turkey. Officials planned to wind up this phase of the assembly meeting by the middle of next week.

U. S. Britain Lead Drive

Both the United States and Britain were in the forefront of the drive to persuade Russia through moral pressure and aroused public opinion to restrict her future use of the veto power to very rare cases. But some British-American differences appeared over how to get the best results in this effort.

The British are using frontal assault tactics. The Americans, evidently hoping that some conciliatory gestures by the Russians yesterday might herald a change in the Soviet attitude, reportedly favor a less direct, more kid-gloved approach.

Delivering Britain's policy speech in the general debate session last night, Philip Noel-Baker, British chief delegate, accused Russia of "reckless use" of the veto and said that if it continued the security council soon would be rendered helpless to play its part in preserving world peace and security.

Urges Atomic Control

Noel-Baker also urged the atomic energy committee to get to work drafting a treaty for the regulation, control and safeguarding of atomic energy developments, and said the British would start at once on this project. He insisted that the UN military staff committee should also move vigorously push its formation of collective security forces and plans for international armaments control.

The prevailing opinion among diplomats here seems to be, however, that until the East-West split dramatized by the veto issue is somehow bridged the United Nations can at best make but slow progress on even these major undertakings.

A possible step in this direction appeared yesterday in a meeting of the assembly's [illegible]

U. S. Launches New Drive To Procure Building Materials

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—The government embarked on a series of new expedients today to round up scarce lumber and nails for veterans' housing, including the removal of import duties on wood suitable for construction.

These developments came in quick order:

1. President Truman proclaimed an emergency under which a list of timber, lumber and lumber products designated by national housing administrator Wilson Wyatt will be duty free. Wyatt planned to have the list ready Monday.

2. Wyatt announced the government will pay manufacturers a premium of $20 a ton for housing nails produced in excess of quotas based on their output in the first half of 1946.

3. The housing agency and civilian production administration launched a drive against black markets in which they said nails sell for as much as ten times the legal price.

4. The NHA and CPA reported that leading nail companies have pledged a production level of [illegible] change.

In New Orleans, secretary H. C. Berkes of the Southern Pine association said Russia and Sweden might pour so much lumber into this country that it would break the domestic lumber market. On a duty-free basis, he said, they could undersell domestic producers.

Chairman Carroll Reece of the Republican national committee called the action a mere political maneuver.

NHA officials conceded privately, meanwhile, that the 1946 goal of starting 1,000,000 new homes and apartments would be missed [illegible]

Plan for Cape Cod House Makes Provision for Future Additions

YOUR HOME TODAY and TOMORROW
by W. Wadsworth Wood

Suggestions for Cape Cod Modern House

The Cape Cod type of house always attracts attention because of the square floor plan, and the ability of the owner to spread the house to further dimensions. The plan suggested here provides for a living room which takes up one entire side of the first floor for a dining room which is unusually large, a very spacious kitchen and a powder room convenient to both kitchen and living room.

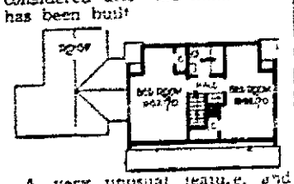
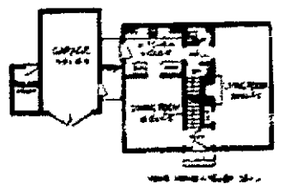
The garage and tool shed, as well as a terrace off the living room are additions which can be considered after the main house has been built.



A very unusual feature, and one not found in the average Cape



The exterior of this house can be of clapboard as shown, of shingle or brick or stone, whichever material is most available. A basement is optional, as the space devoted to the stair well can be utilized for a utility room to accommodate the heating plant.

As with all square floor plans, this is economical to build and offers every opportunity to the progressive owner for expansion and improvement as finances permit.

Producers Stress Paint Instructions

Paint manufacturers have taken a lot of care in the making of their finishes and know better than anyone else how they should be handled. Careful reading and following the directions on the can of any paint or allied product is likely to result in economy in the use of material and labor.

A few minutes spent in reading the manufacturer's directions may save hours of unnecessary labor and insure a satisfactory job.

a small dressing room at the rear end. The bathroom is located so that it is easily accessible from both bedrooms. Characteristic of the Cape Cod plan, is the fact that both of the second story bedrooms have space is more than generous on both second and first floors.

The plan for future expansion, if any, can be nicely handled by an addition for guest room or rooms at the rear of the living room, so that the powder room will provide convenience. The garage may be built to two-story proportion, so that another upstairs bedroom will be available. In that case the one bedroom will lose its dressing room, which will make way for the required hall.

Scratched Mirror

Q.: What materials do I use and how do I go about resurfacing a mirror which is badly scratched?

A.: The mirror needs to be resilvered, which is a job that cannot be done at home. A dealer in plate glass can arrange to have it done for you, however. The work requires large, heated tanks and unusual chemicals that are not available to a home owner.

FIRST AID TO AILING HOUSE

—By ROGER C. WHITMAN—

Cleaning Waffle-Iron

Q.: How can I clean my electric waffle-iron? It is badly burned and the outside nickel-plating is very much tarnished.

A.: For best results take the iron to an electric appliance shop where repairs are made. If you wish to do your own cleaning, cover the iron with a paste of baking soda moistened with water, and allow to dry. This will remove much of the discoloration. Before using again, however, it should be brushed with a vegetable oil and heated, which is the same treatment given to a new waffle-iron. This is necessary because the baking soda, in addition to taking out the discoloration, will also remove the grease from the surface. After all this work, the grids will discolor again when the iron is used. Do not expect it to stay bright and shiny. The tarnishing on the exterior of the iron should come off with a good metal polish. There are good products on the market. If the nickel is worn off, you may be able to have a replating job done. The above will not be suitable for grids made of aluminum.

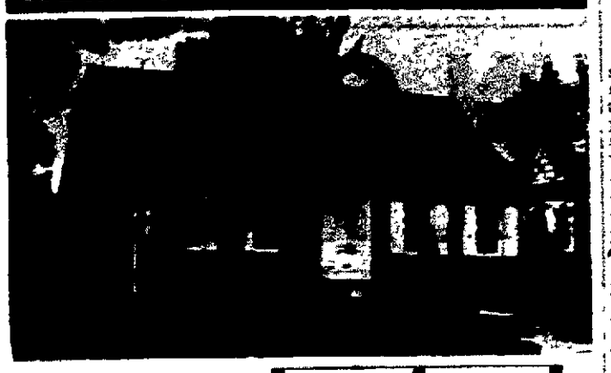
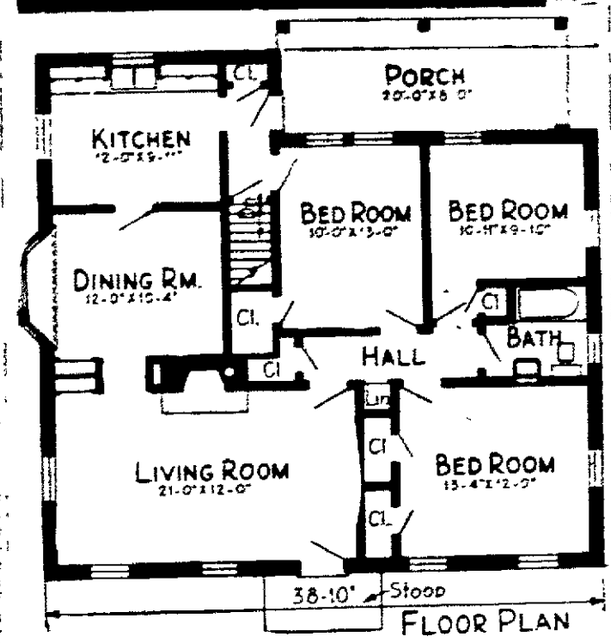
Hollow Tile

Q.: We have been looking at a house built of what appears to be hollow tile, but before purchasing, would like to know whether or not this type of construction is durable.

A.: Hollow tile covered on the outside with stucco or brick should be very satisfactory. The inside plastering should be applied over furring strips. There must be an air space between the inside and outside walls. If plastering is applied directly on the outside masonry, there may be trouble with dampness and condensation.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS





(Plan HJ-101, American Builder, 105 W. Adams St., Chicago, 3) This three bedroom house on one level is done on simple lines with the bedroom area off to one side and separated from the living room by a solid wall. The bay window in the dining room is a popular feature.

SANITATION AIDS ASSIGNED TO NHA

U. S. Public Health Service sanitation engineers will be assigned to the National Housing agency to serve as consultants on public health and environmental sanitation matters in connection with the Veterans Emergency Housing program, Dr. Thomas Parran, surgeon general of the service, and Wilson W. Wyatt, housing expediter and administrator of NHA, have announced.

A supervising sanitary engineering consultant will be assigned to the NHA headquarters in Washington and a qualified engineer is to be provided for each of the eight regional NHA offices. The service also will make available other consulting public health services.

Before being assigned to the field the staff of consultants will be given a training course by the Public Services division of NHA, covering the agency's program, policies, problems and procedures as related to the public health aspects of the VEHP.

When assigned to the regional offices the engineers will work under the direction of the regional expediters and in collaboration with the Land and Public Services specialist of the region. They will work in co-operation with state and local officials. Technical supervision over their activities will be provided by the supervising engineer in Washington. The supervisor will be responsible to the surgeon general for such measures as are necessary in carrying out the co-operative program. He will also serve as regional sanitary engineering consultant in the Washington metropolitan area.

Public health consultants also will continue to serve the Federally-financed temporary housing program for veterans handled through the Federal Public Housing authority. This service was originally set up as part of the war housing program.

Color Schemes Aid Poor Light in Home

A. V. Weir general manager Canadian National Institute for the Blind, concurs in the recent findings of Peter J. Salmon of Brooklyn, N. Y., that carefully chosen color schemes can be an aid to the near blind just as they are effective aids to better seeing by those who have normal vision.

A color scheme used in painting the walls in an institution for the blind consists of combinations of green and brilliant orange—colors which have been found to be especially helpful for the blind. Basically the color scheme consists of two shades of green paint on the walls, with supporting pillars, stair rails, mantel trim and other objects painted orange.

Old Drab Kitchen Now Colorful Room

Old time kitchens were purely utilitarian, drab and unsanitary. Today, the kitchen is one of the show rooms of the house and generally is finished in light, cheery colors.

Before painting a kitchen, some of the factors which should be considered are the size and shape of the room, the color preferences of the family and the degree of natural lighting.

For the larger surfaces, bright and cheerful but not too gaudy colors are suggested by one decorator with splashes of vivid colors reserved for small objects and gadgets to provide interesting contrasts.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N BUNDESEN, M.D.

Motion Sickness

Since the beginning of time man seems to have had an urge to travel — to get out and go places. So long as he stuck to the primitive methods of ox-cart, muleback and "shank's pony," he had little to fear in the way of physical upsets due to motion, at least in his journeys over land Of course any sort of travel over unstable and wind-whipped waters has always carried with it the possibility of seasickness, and with the advent of fast transportation by train or car more and more people experience a similar discomfort even while sticking to dry land Now that airplane travel has become common we hear a lot about air-sickness too.

Recently, doctors have come to lump all these ailments under the one name—motion sickness—because all are essentially due to movement.

Motion sickness causes such symptoms as sickness to the stomach, headache, and vomiting There are a number of things which contribute to the development of these conditions Changes in the position of different organs within the body may be responsible for some of the symptoms What is known as a disturbance of the sense or orientation in space is probably a more important factor A person's ability to know just where he is depends upon the inner ears, the eyes and certain nerves in the muscles It would appear that the little canals in the inner ears, known as the semicircular canals, are most important from this standpoint particularly in so far as the development of motion sickness is concerned

There are a number of things which persons can do to help prevent motion sickness. It is suggested that about a week prior to travel a person who is subject to this condition should go to bed early every night, avoid excessive eating and the excessive use of alcoholic beverages Attention should also be given to having a daily bowel movement

During a trip, if motion sickness develops or seems to be coming on as indicated by excessive saliva in the mouth, yawning or a feeling of warmth, he should tilt his head backwards and look upward

Certain drugs are also available which seem to have some benefit. Such preparations as atrophine and amphetamine have been found useful. A drug known as hyoscine hydrobromide may effectively relieve attacks It can be given in tablets which may be placed under the tongue Physicians at the Mayo Clinic have also suggested that about a week prior to a journey it may be helpful for the patient to take some sedative or nerve-quieting drug, such as phenobarbital, which the physician will prescribe

Those who suffer from motion sickness can find at least some degree of relief with proper treatment

There are no figures showing the number of people who suffer from car sickness, but certain studies show that at least 10 to 15 per cent of our air travelers become sick enroute A great many more feel ill at ease but without vomiting As for seasickness, it has been estimated that 40 per cent of all people are susceptible to it.

Thus it is good news to all these sufferers from motion sickness that proper precautions and good medical treatment can bring some degree of relief

Marion Y Head To Speak Before College Prexies

When you consider how much more you'll get by waiting for a new Pontiac—you'll agree that here is one case where waiting pays off in handsome dividends.
Pontiac leads its field by such a wide margin because there is no substitute for what it offers. There is no substitute for Pontiac beauty—for Pontiac performance—for Pontiac comfort—or for Pontiac safety and handling ease. And the years of wartime usage proved conclusively that there is no substitute for Pontiac dependability! For reasons beyond our control, which we regret as much as you, production is below what had been anticipated. But improvement is being made—and the wait, from here out, may be shorter than you think. But whatever the time before your Pontiac is ready—wait! Responsibility for Peace

"NO responsible government," President Truman has told delegates to the United Nations Assembly, "can ignore the universal feeling . . . the people of every nation are sick of war."

There can be no argument about that statement. The people of every nation are ceased to tolerate war even before World War II began. It began because irresponsible governments came to power.

Hindsight makes it plain that militarists in Germany, Japan and Italy, the three nations whose governments sought war, were overridden by military minorities backing governments which came to power through violence and deceit. Foresight makes it plain that popular reaction from the horror and waste of the war they caused now has gone so far that to ignore it is to deny the governed the right to participate in their own government.

This is of course the underlying reason for Mr. Truman's restatement of the four freedoms as conditions underlying world peace, especially freedom of speech. Americans are fearful of what the Russian government may do, not of what the Russian people would do if they knew what their government was doing and could discuss it. Conscientious observers who have traveled among the Russian people find no attitude of belligerency; it is an attitude held only by a government which so far has not tolerated a free press or free speech. In dealing with Russia—and in speaking of such things as responsibility for peace—the United States and its spokesmen only can hope to break through the censorship which keeps the Russian people from knowing that their own longing for security is shared by every national group they are encouraged to despise.

A. Ossipov's Helping Hand

A MOSCOW radio commentator named A. Ossipov has played a dirty trick on CIO-PAC. He has given it the official Russian nod in the coming election. Russia, he says, thanks CIO-PAC is leading the "progressive forces" of America.

It is hard to explain to an outsider, especially a Russian outsider, but in American politics it isn't smart to get the nod from a foreign power. The United States was founded by people who were fed up with foreign powers trying to meddle in American affairs. Through the Revolutionary war, the War of 1812, the Indian wars, the Civil war, the Mexican war, Spanish-American war, World Wars I and II and all the intervening spaces Americans have seen red whenever there was evidence of foreign interference in their political affairs. They are seeing red in 1946—and not in the way A. Ossipov would like to imagine. CIO-PAC has every right to wonder if Moscow was trying to help it or ruin it.

Public Relations Job

REPEATED warnings by economists, management representatives, public officials, even labor leaders, that the immediate future of reconversion and the price spiral depend on organized labor, have created a public relations job for unions.

At its worst, it is a job of convincing the public that labor unions are not practicing economic blackmail on the American economy. At its best, it is a job of convincing the public that unions are merely the victims of their own internal pressures—pressures from the rank and file on leadership, pressures from leadership on the rank and file, and in some cases economic pressures on both.

The unions obviously cannot afford to take the blame for further interruptions in reconversion. They could argue with telling effect a year ago that they were carrying out government policy. They could persuade themselves that they not only were close to government, but that in some respects they had become even more powerful than government. Insofar as public inconvenience was caused by their work stoppages, they could reason that the public was powerless to do anything about it, and they were right.

But there have been some changes made, and more are in sight. The political atmosphere of the country, unless all the prophets are wrong, is settling down. Wartime turbulences are going out of style. The people, having despaired of postwar stability under government control, are determined to create stability on their own terms. They will call on the new congress for whatever revisions may seem necessary in labor laws after the end of this year. Organized labor's political influence is on the wane; it no longer can claim that it is immune to public opinion.

Socialism for Europe

By WALTER LIPPMANN

U. S. Must Learn To Accept It as Britain Takes Stand.

MR. BEVIN'S speech is a striking example of how the British, without military or economic pressure, are able to remain a leading power in the world. By long tradition Britain is now interested in and is, more than most British statesmen would willingly admit, by conscious design, they are masters of the art of using the balance of power.

Once we had come forward to relieve the pressure of the Soviets on the empire, the development of British foreign policy in Europe, and particularly as to Germany, during the last six or seven months has been one of gradual, but steady progress toward a middle position between the Soviet Union and the United States.

Britain can now reached that middle position in Mr. Bevin's statement that the British policy in Germany is going to be as against the Communists they will stand for free institutions and political democracy, but they will stand also for public ownership of the basic industries rather than for the perpetuation of free capitalism.

There is a line of policy which corresponds more accurately than does that of Moscow to our own and to the sentiments of Europe and to the practical necessities of the continent, and that undoubtedly is the line which the influence of Britain in the reconstruction of Europe.

The attempt to promote Socialism in Germany was, of course, in the minds of the recent German elections in Berlin. But the results of those elections show that the British have placed their bets on a longer horse. The Communists were decisively beaten. But they were beaten by the Socialists.

Parties To Struggle

That election was almost certainly the pilot of postwar Europe as a whole. The struggle for Europe will be between, say, Churchill and Stalin. It is between the Soviet-dominated, non-Communist and anti-Communist left—and the Communists.

The foreign policy of the Labor party, which is only now beginning to emerge, is adjusted to that fact. It suits the Labor party, which is itself a Socialist party. But it suits also the permanent underlying British interest in that it enables Britain once again to occupy a middle position in the world, and to exert an important, perhaps a decisive, influence upon the balance of power.

We must not think that the British have decided for Socialism in Germany for purely ideological reasons. The condition of Germany and of the liberated countries is the controlling reason. The shattered and dislocated economy of Europe cannot be restored by private enterprise. All Europeans, even the moderate conservatives, realize that this is the fact.

The capital investment required to reconstruct Europe is so great, the risks so high, that private finance and private enterprise cannot provide the capital. Only governments can do it. Moreover, there are lacking the men to conduct great private enterprises. Too many were disabled or killed by the Nazis, and too many were hopelessly discredited by collaboration with the Nazis.

Free enterprise, as we understand it and practice it in this country is not a practical regime in post-war Europe. The Europeans, not only the Germans cannot restore free enterprise in the great basic industries.

Their choices are Communism, some form of Socialism, or—though this is impossible on a large scale—to be financed and managed from abroad—that is to say, chiefly from the United States.

The propaganda which Moscow has been conducting against us—which Mr. Byrnes so rightly resents—about "economic imperialism" is an attempt to exploit the fear prevalent all over Europe and in Britain too, that in the name of free enterprise we shall use our immense creditor position and our industrial power to control the social development of Europe.

British Problem In Germany

The British are well aware that George L. Allen has been in Berlin to look into the financing of German and other European industry through the Reconstruction Finance Corp. Now one of the compelling reasons why Britain will take the Socialist line in Germany is that Britain is unable, as it did after the first world war, to finance German reconstruction through the London banking houses.

They own a very considerable bad German debt, perhaps as much as $120,000,000, left over from before the war, which would have to be dealt with before private financing could begin. Moreover, Britain is short of dollars and the hard currencies, and could finance German industry only in the sterling area.

The United States, on the other hand, owns very little German debt, and can be a strong creditor. The British as such, and the British under a Socialist government still less, will not wish to see the United States acquire a serious control over the basic industries of Germany. The Socialization of those industries suits them, therefore, not only ideologically, not only diplomatically, but financially and economically as well.

It will be difficult for us in our present mood to adjust our minds and our policy to these developments. But we must adjust them. Hard as it will be for us to accept the view that Socialism is necessary in Europe, though we oppose it here, we shall have to accept it if we want peace and reconstruction more than we want to vindicate our own ideology abroad.

German and Japanese toys are reaching the United States in anticipation of the Christmas trade.

Seems only yesterday the only thing we wanted to see "Made in Japan" was unconditional surrender.

Our recent enemies have revised an old stratagem . . . If you can't lick 'em, sell 'em."

They have beat their swords into whistles and their spears into tea sets. They care not, now, who rules the world so long as they make its kewpie-dolls.

Belatedly, too, the Germans realize their mistake. They should have stuck to dive-bombing.

One thing I find most puzzling. Where are they getting their scrap metal now that junk is bringing such prices on American used car lots?

Battle for Congress

By RAYMOND MOLEY

BATTLE FOR CONGRESS No. 7

(This is the second of a series of articles on political situations.)

IN THE preceding article in this series, it was calculated that 82 of the 218 seats necessary to a Republican majority in the house of representatives are in nine safe and solid Republican states, in two almost solid Democratic states and in Massachusetts, Ohio, Connecticut and Michigan, where the lines are well drawn at this time.

From here on, an analysis must proceed to states where a larger and larger element of doubt exists. These are, to use a Roosevelt word, "iffy" states.

In New Jersey, things seem to be fairly well settled, unless a tremendous trend is beginning. Republicans will probably win 12 seats there.

Indiana Situation.

Indiana has been solidly Republican for several years, except for two house seats. These two seats present special problems. The first or Gary district is heavily industrial. Even optimistic Republicans say that the race there is close. And when Republican party workers say that, wise people count the district Democratic. The Indianapolis district has been represented for 18 years by Louis Ludlow, an eccentric Democrat who gets many Republican votes. He is unable to make an active campaign this year. His opponent is Albert Beveridge, son of the great Bull Moose senator. It is a contest between two notable names. If, as predicted, Indianapolis goes Republican by 20,000, Ludlow may lose. But considering the close and factional fight in the district represented by an eccentric Republican, Charles La Follette, it is best to check one close fight against another and give Indiana the same number of Republican seats as at present which is nine.

After checking and rechecking Illinois, a conservative guess is that the Republicans will gain one seat in Chicago and one in the East St. Louis district. The Democratic congresswoman-at-large will be replaced by a Republican congressman-at-large. That gives Illinois 18 Republicans.

The fight in Wisconsin is over the two Milwaukee districts. There the situation is chaotic. A good guess is that both seats will go Republican, but a more conservative estimate will give them one. That means nine Republicans from Wisconsin.

St. Paul Doubtful.

Minnesota now has seven Republicans and two Democrats. The district which, by a fluke, went to the late W. J. Gallagher, will probably perform no more antics and go Republican. The St. Paul race is doubtful. It looks safe to give the Republicans eight seats in the state.

Still going west, we can count the present Republican congressman in Wyoming as safe.

In Colorado, Republicans now have all four districts. In Denver, however, a virile Democratic organization and a flashy leftish Democrat may reduce Colorado's Republicans to three.

Montana, with one Republican and one Democrat, will probably remain the same. That goes for Idaho, too.

Forget Nevada. Too many Federal employees, too much Federal spending and a two-to-one 1944 Democratic majority rule it out.

So casting up this batch of states, and, adding the 82 previously described, the Republicans have, at this stage in our count, 144 seats.

Next, we shall get into still more "iffy" states.

Bureaucracy's Cost

From 1932 to 1944, payrolls in the judicial branch of federal government increased only 3 million dollars and the legislature branch payrolls increased only 5 million dollars, while the executive branch (containing all bureaucracy) increased yearly payrolls by 6 billion, 567 million dollars. This cost is still going up.

Hannegan Maps Grand Windup

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Another touch of oddity is about to be added to this curious campaign by the grand Democratic windup. In a day or so, the mournful drama of the soap operas will be interspersed with a new kind of radio entertainment, on which the Democratic National Committee is expending a handsome share of its large remaining kitty.

Canned broadcasts, prepared in Washington and distributed to appropriate local stations, will put the blame for high meat prices on the troublesome Republicans. On the full dress platter, the voice of Franklin Delano Roosevelt will speak from the grave to support the charge that the Republicans favor "meat for the millionaires but not for the millions." The somewhat less majestic tones of Harry S. Truman will add their confirmation. And Postmaster General Robert S. Hannegan will round off the performance by introducing the local candidates, each of whom will follow the platter with live broadcast on his own virtues and his opponent's crimes.

There is a touch of vaudeville about this curious campaigning device. Yet it does not lack serious significance. In the first place, it indicates the boundless energy and optimism with which Hannegan has worked to save something from the ruins. If anything much is saved, it will be to Hannegan that President Truman will owe his good fortune. Hannegan is now encouraging the doubtful leaders out in the districts by assuring them that there is a last minute swing toward the Democrats. He is fond of reminding them of the 1944 campaign, when the outlook was so dark in mid-October that satrap Ed Flynn of New York abandoned hope of the election of so popular a candidate as Senator Robert F. Wagner. If there is a note of whistling in the graveyard about this public confidence of Hannegan's, it must be remembered that it is better to keep your courage up by whistling than to lose your nerve altogether.

Last Minute Strategy.

In the second place, the new broadcasts disclose the last minute campaign strategy which the Democratic high command has adopted. The President speaks on the platters, but he is subordinated to Roosevelt, and to the attack on the Republicans. A conscious decision has in fact been made to keep Truman out of the campaign as far as it is generally possible to do. Previous plans called for a political address after his speech of welcome to the United Nations Assembly. Unless plans are changed again, the political speech will not be made, since the consensus of the leadership is that Truman's prestige is too low at the present moment.

If the President speaks, it is thought his personality and performance will become active campaign issues. And although some satraps have advocated a less cautious course, the majority have advised that the injection of Truman as an issue will make things harder for their boys down in the districts. Not Truman, but Roosevelt and the conservatism of the Republicans are the issues which the high command wishes to stress.

Third, the broadcasts in a sense symbolize the changing state of affairs at the White House. They represent the Democratic effort to assume the offensive on the meat issue. (Anyone who has seen the hunger of Europe dislikes to suggest that a meat issue exists, yet there is no use concealing its major importance.) The assumption of the offensive was made possible by the President's self reversal to decontrol meat. And that in turn came about as a result of the altered White House climate.

The change is twofold. In part, Truman himself has faced up to the appalling loss of prestige and appeal which he has suffered in the last six months, and has at last begun to listen regularly and receptively to his more professional advisers. And in part, the Truman's personal staff has also been changed, by the emergence of the competent Captain Clark Clifford, counsel to the President, as a newly predominant influence.

Truman Objected.

As will be recalled, when Postmaster General Hannegan and his attendant satraps of the Democratic National Committee's executive committee first suggested decontrol of meat, the President at his peace conference cut the ground from under them before they could hand him their resolution. He then became almost angrily obstinate in his desire to avoid self-reversal. Even at the meeting of White House economic advisers the day before decontrol was announced, he persisted in arguing that nothing would make meat available. Clifford's sensible approach to the problem and courage in pointing out the realities to the President (in which he was joined by such other counsellors as Hannegan) finally set the stage for the unpalatable decision to throw meat control out the window. It is also to be noted that Clifford was the chief draftsman of the President's New York speech, and that the common attribution to Judge Samuel I. Rosenman was without foundation.

All this suggests that the President, having gone through a series of pretty unhappy phases, is now squaring away to tackle his vast job in a realistic manner. Unluckily, the reports from the election districts suggest that this is happening a little too late.

Self-Made Doctor

By TRUMAN TWILL

Whenever we see a pill doctor, either professionally or socially, twinges of conscience set in because in the rush we neglected to attend medical school, take a state examination and hang out a shingle.

To make a clean breast of it, we have been practicing medicine without a license. We are not even a corner druggist, a pharmacist's mate or a medical corpsman. We just do healing for fun.

Our career started unobtrusively about a decade ago. The outlay for equipment was ridiculous—80 cents for a bottle of sedative pills. The idea was to have them on hand for personal headaches.

But word got around that the man to go to see about a headache in the course of a working day was Pill Twill. Meanwhile, fortune favored us with a kind of consulting room, which encouraged the patients to break down and cry all.

Treatment was administered for overindulgence, eye strain, nervous excitement, the common cold, influenza, stomach pains, headache, decline hysteria and psychiatric symptoms—all out of the same bottle.

By conservative estimate, 600 sedative tablets have been administered, along with advice, in the course of our medical career, and business is still increasing.

Listening to our advice is all it costs the patient to get the pill, which seems a fair exchange. Lowering our voice so it won't be overheard by the desperadoes whose function is to keep the help on its toes, we advise the patients to put on their hats, coats, babushka, stocking caps, overshoes, or whatever seems to be necessary, and go straight home.

For aggravated cases, we drop down to a whisper and tell the patients to stay home, maybe take a trip out of town, or if it's within a quickie to Florida, a trick we picked up from real doctors, who always are advising the patients to go south and forget it all.

Singlehanded, we have been the cause of more absenteeism and soldiering than any of the other bad influences with which home workers are surrounded in these phrenetic days. And unlike real doctors, who work themselves to death telling others not to kill themselves, we believe what we say.

An inventory has just revealed that the sedative bottle is almost empty. Winter is setting in, the boom season. We must lay in more pills. We are going to add a modest line of vitamins, for psychological effect, some spirits of ammonia to revive employes who faint themselves out and some red ink and realistic made bandages for the occasional eager beaver who works his fingers to the bone. As long as we've gone this far, we might as well go the limit. See Pill Twill today—no waiting, and we won't ask to look at your tongue either.

The Enemy Within Our Gates

By REV. J. B. HOLLOWAY
Pastor of Trinity Baptist Church

"Text: "Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler; and whosoever erreth thereby is not wise." Pr. 20:1.

This sermonette was written by Rev. Holloway in behalf of the Marion County Ministerial association in observance of World Temperance Sunday tomorrow.

WE HAVE just fought a horrible war — on such a vast global scale, at such a tremendous cost, and with such scientific precision as to eclipse by far any previous conflict—yet in spite of its enormous cost in man power and munitions and the frightful loss of life on the battlefield, we are waging a war in America against a "fifth column enemy" in our midst that is far more insidious and morally devastating.

The enemy is a brawler.

The liquor evil has boldly invaded the sacred precincts of the American home and has deeply entrenched itself in every stratum of society with an air of respectability which has hood-winked many intelligent and well-meaning people into believing that it can do no harm. But the wise person is wary of it because of the company it keeps. Paul warns us against fulfilling the lusts of the flesh and proceeds to enumerate the works of the flesh which includes drunkenness: "adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, strife, jealousies, wrath, factions, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, DRUNKENNESS, revelings and such like." (Gal. 5:19-21).

In other days the iniquitous liquor industry was forced to hide its ugly face in shame behind closed doors in back street saloons where no self-respecting woman would dare think of going and youth were forbidden to loiter. Today the picture has changed. Donning a dress suit the enemy struts amid bright lights in fashionable circles, not merely in back street dives, gyp-joints and road houses, but in cocktail lounges in hotels and restaurants and other public places. But his change of environment has not modified his despicable character one whit. He has ever been a brawler and a villian at heart. The liquor traffic, born of a pitiless lust for gain is and always has been incurably lawless with notable unconcern for the moral welfare of its victims.

The Enemy is a profligate waster.

The liquor interests are annually spending 100 millions of dollars in alluring and colorful advertising and insidious propaganda and have succeeded in seducing the American public into spending 7 billion 790 millions of dollars for alcoholic beverages, whereas, during the year, 1945, we spent only 3 billion 203 millions of dollars for public education and 720 millions for religious activities. It is perfectly obvious that our so-called Christian social order is far more pagan than Christian and is sealing its own doom if it continues to spend twice as much on that which contributes only to the moral deterioration of society as it does for its schools and churches which are dedicated solely to the uplift of mankind and the development of stalwart character.

Because of the intense world needs some limitations were placed on brewers and distillers, yet 58 million bushels of scarce grain were allocated during the first six months of 1946 for the manufacture of alcoholic beverages while millions of undernourished and homeless people in Europe and Asia were literally starving to death. According to estimates made by the bureau of human nutrition and home economics these 58 millions of bushels of grain could have prevented the starvation of 45 million people.

The lamentable upsurge of juvenile delinquency in this country, the current crime wave, and the ever increasing number of fatal traffic accidents that are drinking-induced are greatly to be deplored. Reliable statistics reveal that during the war years when travelling was at a minimum because of gas rationing there were actually more casualties from accidents than from the battlefields, and the vast majority of those accidents were caused either directly or indirectly from drinking. What a useless waste of life!

According to recent surveys by several independent research bureaus, there are now 50 million social drinkers in America, which means that nearly fifty per cent of the adult population of this country are either casual drinkers or steady imbibers. Of this appalling number, Dr. E. M. Jellinek, research professor of Yale university, estimates that there are 750 thousand who are known to be "chronic alcoholics" and 2 million 500 thousand are on the verge of alcoholism and the long list is increasing daily. Another pathetic observation which this eminent authority makes is that one out of every six alcoholics in the U. S. are women.

Many of us who have served with the armed forces over seas as well as in the homeland can testify to the deplorable loss of manpower from week-end sprees and the lessening of moral stamina on the part of multitudes of choice young men and young women in uniform who had never tasted of liquor before the temptation was thrust upon them and they were enticed to take the first drink. A chaplain still with our armed forces overseas writes that "during the past year I have seen 99 per cent more drunkenness on the part of G. I.'s than the Japanese people." Instances of disorder, vehicle accidents, illicit sexual relations, race riots, abuse of Japanese civilians, and destruction of government property as a result of excessive use of alcohol has brought about a serious situation that is difficult to cope with.

The Enemy Is Deceptive

There are two stages in the life of the drinker: when he could stop if he would and when he would stop if he could. "Wine is a mocker . . . and whoever is deceived thereby is not wise." Since alcohol is a habit forming drug every drinker is a potential alcoholic and one of the fatal tragedies of this evil lies in the fact that its victim seldom recognizes his imminent danger until he has succumbed to the obsession of drink. The road back to sobriety, taken only by a small percentage of alcoholics is a rough road, paved with indescribable mental, physical and spiritual suffering. By far the wisest course to pursue is that of the total abstainer and never allow the first drink to pass the lips.

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler, and whosoever erreth thereby is not wise."

The evils connected with drinking are manifold and affect not merely the drinker physically, mentally and spiritually, but they constitute a staggering social waste to which no permanent good can possibly be attached. There can be no compromise with this powerful and treacherous enemy within our gates.

Dr. Warren C. McIntire, evangelist of Wilmore, Ky., above, will open a revival meeting in First Pilgrim Holiness church Wednesday night. Services will be each night at 7:30 through Nov. 10, and will be open to the public, Rev. Joel Harman, pastor, announced.

Wesley Church Youth Program Arranged

The Senior Youth Fellowship of Wesley Methodist church, in keeping with plans for the winter program in the church, will have charge of the Sunday evening service on the fourth Sunday of each month. Tomorrow evening, the theme of the service will center around the subject, "Public Service at Home." The prelude will be given on the organ by Ruth Schertzer, and the worship service will be in charge of Martha Ekey, the Scripture will be read by Helen Zuspan and special number, Ruth Schertzer. Virginia Zuspan will preside and introduce the topic. Those giving talks include Betty Pence, Ronald Cox and Dick Haines. Ushers include Louise Lamb, Ruth Williamson, Dorothy Clunk and Joan Shults.

Week of Prayer and Self-Denial will be observed by the W. S. C. S. of the Wesley church on Thursday, with the service beginning at 10:30 a. m. Mrs. H. M. McAdow, Spiritual Life secretary, will be in charge of the service and will be assisted by five leaders.

The pastor's annual training class of Wesley church will open next Saturday at 10 a. m. and will continue each Saturday until Palm Sunday next spring. The class includes children in the fifth, sixth and seventh grades. Registration for the class will be open until Friday next week.

GIDEONS TO SPEAK IN CHURCHES HERE

Annual Rally of Marion Camp Set for Sunday.

Out-of-town Gideons will speak in 20 local churches Sunday, marking the annual rally of the Marion camp of Gideons. At a consecration service to be held at the Prospect Street Methodist church at 8 a. m., assignments will be made to the various churches. Offerings will be taken to finance the local program of placing a Testament in the hands of every school child from the fifth through the twelfth grades. A Fellowship dinner will be held at the Y.M.C.A. at 1 p. m., following which there will be a fellowship meeting.

Among the out-of-town guest speakers there will be present John W. Lamey, Alliance, state president; Paul W. Kauth, Canton, state vice president; Carl Gombert, Cuyahoga Falls, state chaplain; J. F. Lusk, Findlay, state treasurer; and L. W. Copley, president of the Findlay camp.

The original local school program was to provide Testaments to children from the fifth through the ninth grades, but this program has been expanded to include the senior high school grades. A total of 3,550 Testaments have been ordered to carry out this plan, according to Harry N. Crowmer, local president. A dedication of these Testaments will be made Sunday at the fellowship meeting at the Y.M.C.A. Some time ago the local Gideons placed 180 Bibles in the schools, to aid the week-day religious education program, and, at the request of the religious education instructors, an additional 100 Bibles are being given the schools.

Officers of the Marion camp are Harry N. Crowmer, president; C. Z. Zachman, vice president; Marion H. Brown, secretary; J. J. Stafford, treasurer and Bible secretary; and Clifford L. Ward, chaplain.

Mr. Lamey will speak at Oakland Evangelical church at 10:30 a. m., and Mr. Kauth will speak at Calvary Evangelical church at 10:30. Other churches which have announced that they will have Gideon speakers include Salem Evangelical and Reformed, at the Sunday school hour; St. Paul English Lutheran, Sunday school; First Church of the Brethren, class period; and Emmanuel Baptist, Sunday school hour.

HIRED AT MT. GILEAD

MT GILEAD — Kenneth Throckmorton of near Sparta will be hired by the Marengo board of education at their next meeting to teach the second on-the-job farm training school in Morrow county. It was announced this week by F. E. Honnold, Morrow county superintendent of schools. The school is expected to start about Nov. 15.

A PREMIUM VALUE

It is natural for one to think of Marion Cemetery as a costly burial place because of its beautifully maintained grounds, its well trained personnel and extensive services rendered.

But it costs no more for a family burial lot in Marion Cemetery than any other cemetery.

Investigate the modest cost and the convenient payment plan offered.

DO NOT BE MISLED!
A Beautiful Funeral Need Not Be Expensive

When bereavement comes to your family, Boyd-Uncapher will provide a beautiful funeral service at a cost no higher than the family wishes to pay. The cost of a funeral is determined largely by the price of the casket selected. However, the price of the casket does not measure our service.

We give our personal attention and assume complete responsibility for every detail regardless of the cost of the funeral.

Dress Up Party Held by Women of Country Club

FOLLOWING an antual custom women of the Marion Country club climaxed their summer season of weekly parties with a "dress up" party Thursday at the club. The day's program was a full one and included golf, bridge and the awarding of the season's golf awards.

Clever and unusual costumes were worn by the members in the dress up parade and awards were presented to Mrs. Harry Lazear for the most original, Mrs. R. A. Anderson the funniest, Mrs. James C. Woods Jr. and Miss Ann Mapes the cleverest and Mrs. Merle Hamilton the prettiest. Mrs. Lazear chose to be a "bunny," Mrs. Anderson an Ubangi, Mrs. Woods and Miss Mapes football twins and Mrs. Hamilton a party girl. Bridge awards were won by Mrs. Oliver Hamilton, Mrs. Merle Hamilton, Mrs. Karl Holly, Mrs. E. G. Siefert, Mrs. John Waddell, Mrs. Ralph Schick, Mrs. Robert O'Connell, Mrs. Howard R. Stoll, Mrs. Robert Gentry, Mrs. D. A. Howard and Mrs. Walter Westland. In "razzle dazzle" golf the Blue team defeated the Red team one-up.

Mrs. Howard R. Stoll, golf chairman, presented the golf awards for the season. Winners were as follows: championship tournament, Mrs. Robert C. Owen, Mrs. P. A. Frazier, runner-up; B-flight championship, Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, Mrs. R. A. Anderson, runner-up; handicap tournament, Mrs. Robert C. Owens, Mrs. P. A. Anderson, tied for second; B-flight, Mrs. Paul Hunt, first low gross, Mrs. E. G. Siefert, second; Mrs. Marion Cheney, first low net, Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, second.

Seventy-two hole tournament, A-flight; Mrs. Robert C. Owens, low gross, Mrs. Howard R. Stoll, second, Mrs. K. M. Bower, third, Mrs. C. O. Brown, fourth; Mrs. Francis Huber, first low net, Mrs. B. H. Buettin, second, Mrs. George A. Howser, third, Mrs. John Waddell, fourth; B-flight, Mrs. E. G. Siefert, low gross, Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, second; Mrs. Paul Hunt, low net, Mrs. Paul Frye, second. Mrs. J. J. Lloyda was presented an award as the member lowering her handicap the most points during the year.

Others receiving awards were: Mrs. Robert O'Connell, Mrs. Charles Rhinesmith, Mrs. Charles Gerber, Mrs. George Alber, Mrs. W. A. Dennis, Miss Emma O'Brien, Mrs. Robert LaMarche, Mrs. Philip E. Guthery, Mrs. Henry Lautenslager and Mrs. Frederick T. Merchant.

Luncheon covers were placed for more than 90 members and the number was increased for the afternoon and evening. The women will continue to play golf each Thrusday as long as the weather permits.

Salt Rock Joymakers Meet with Mrs. King

At a recent meeting of the Salt Rock Joymakers club with Mrs. James King east of Meeker, a donation of $2.50 was made to the Community Fund drive. Mrs. C. E. Cates, a former member, was welcomed into the club and Mrs. Robert Carpenter was a guest. A song, "Home Sweet Home," and the scripture lesson read by Mrs. Emerson McKelvy opened the meeting.

A nomination committee was appointed composed of Mrs. Jack Sims, Mrs. Roy Peters, and Mrs. Carl McKelvy. The program consisted of the following numbers: a poem, "Going Nutting" read by Mrs. O. E. Hart; a paper, "The Holy Land," reviewed by Mrs. Jack Sims; and a review on the "Life of President Truman" given by Mrs. Emerson Owens. Prizes in a contest conducted by Mrs. Roy Peters went to Mrs. Emerson McKelvy and Mrs. Weslyn Jenner.

Weddings

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Joan Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Smith of Galion, to Pfc. Charles Graff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Graff of 544 Milburn avenue. The ceremony was read Tuesday, Oct. 22, in Russel, Ky.

The bride is a graduate of Galion High school with the class of 1946 and is employed at the Majestic Electrical Co. in Galion. Pfc. Graff, serving with the U. S. Army, is stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va. Before entering the service he was employed with the Erie Railroad. Mrs. Graff plans to join her husband in the near future.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Mrs. Anna Englert of 433 North State street to Omar L. Hypes of 457 North Greenwood street. The single ring ceremony was read Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 11 a. m. by Dr. V. E. Busler, pastor of Epworth Methodist church, at the parsonage on East Center street.

Mrs. Englert was attired in navy blue crepe dress with matching accessories. They were unattended.

The couple will leave Saturday on an extended wedding trip in West Virginia, and plan to visit friends and relatives in Charleston, Montgomery, Summersville, Hico and Richwood, W. Va. Upon their return, they will reside in Marion. Mr. Hypes is a retired farmer, formerly of Hico, W. Va.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Stout of 126 Pennsylvania avenue returned Friday from a two weeks' visit with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Quail of Upper Sandusky.

Federated Club Members To Hear World Traveler

HOLDERS of patron and patroness tickets for the 1946-47 season will join members of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs for the opening program of the year Tuesday night at Central Junior High school when the speaker will be Mrs. Dorothy Fuldheim of Cleveland, widely known lecturer, traveler and news commentator. Her subject will be "From Moscow to Washington."

Possessing a background of information, experience and world travel that only years of study and observation can produce, Mrs. Fuldheim also has a dynamic personality which captivates her audiences from the moment she appears on the platform.

Mrs. Fuldheim this year was honored by being chosen as one of Cleveland's radio favorites in the 1946 press radio poll. News analyst on WJW, Cleveland station, she is heard five nights a week in an analysis of world events.

Following the talk there will be a question period and in consulting with Mrs. Fillmore Young, program chairman, she expressed the hope that there would be many questions. Also she expressed the hope that there would be men in the audience as well as women as her subject is one of timely interest to both men and women.

Patron and patroness tickets are available from members of the clubs affiliated with the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs and for a very nominal fee. Completing the year's program of speakers are Mrs. Harold Andrews, head of the English department at Ashland college, Ashland, O., who will speak on Dec. 3. William C. Craig of the English department at Wooster college who will talk on "Plays Along Broadway," on March 4, and Mrs. Aileen Benninghoff of Rocky River, O., who will be heard in a book review on April 1. The February meeting is yet to be completed.

Three New Members Welcomed by Club

Three new members were welcomed when the Pleasant Township Farm Women's club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Gail Smith of the Delaware road, south. They are Mrs. Frank Eberl, Mrs. Albert Yeager, and Mrs. R. F. Dickason. Mrs. William Ulmer served as assistant hostess. The Lord's Prayer by the group opened the meeting and devotions were conducted by Mrs. Jay Vaughn. Roll call was answered with miscellaneous items.

Guest speaker was Miss Jane Watters. She spoke on the Red Cross and told of emergencies which occur in peace time and war time service. Contest awards were won by Mrs. J. P. Eichorn and Mrs. Ralph Hager. Guests were Mrs. Herman Mautz and Miss Watters. The next meeting will be Nov. 23 with Mrs. Jacob Bolinger of 346 East Church street.

CHIANG'S ARMY SEALS OFF CHINESE REDS

By The Associated Press

PEIPING, Oct. 26—Two U.S.-trained Chinese armies, driving 59 miles in two days, seized the city of Antung at Korea's border today and sealed off an undetermined number of Communist troops in south Manchuria.

An emergency military conference announced the lightning capture of Antung. Front dispatches said Antung's defenders were falling back to the northeast toward the Communist - held areas of northern Manchuria.

All other Communist forces active in southern Manchuria were reported, however, in a huge government pincers, for Chefoo, their only port of escape in China proper, was under attack from land and sea.

A news blackout still hung over the government assault on Chefoo, which is 240 miles southwest of Antung across the Yellow sea and which served as a landing and take-off point for Communists operating in Manchuria.

The two blows appeared closely co-ordinated and it was likely their strategy was mapped at recent high military conferences in Peiping.

New Mothersingers Group Planned Here

A group of interested women of the north area of Marion have made plans to start a Northside Mothersingers group, and an organization meeting will be held Monday night at the Oak Street school, it was announced.

Any woman interested, whether she has children in school or not, is eligible to join, it was stated. A regular meeting night will be decided on Monday night, and if anyone wanting to join the organization cannot be present then, it is requested that she call Mrs. George Wingett at 7439, registering her name and the night of the week most convenient for her to practice. The night most convenient for the majority of members will be selected for meetings. Monday night the meeting will be at 7:30.

Torrance Speaks On School Operating Cost

J. D. Torrance, clerk of the board of education, spoke on school operational expenses at a meeting of the Mark Street P.-T. A. Tuesday night at the school. Stuart Shipman, principal of the school, announced education week to be held Oct. 28 to Nov. 1, at which time all parents are invited to visit the school.

Mrs. A. C. Thomas, president, was in charge of the meeting, and devotions were conducted by Rev. Marion Lewis of Marion. Plans were made for a supper to be held at the school at a later date, and plans were discussed for a scrap drive in November.

For the program, Miss Phyllis Corbin played two piano selections, and the fourth grade pupils entertained with two Halloween songs. The auditorium was decorated for the meeting in keeping with the Halloween season by Girl Scout Troop No. 3 of the school. Mrs. Clifford Irey of Oak Street school announced that any mother interested in joining the Mothersingers club should meet at Oak Street school Monday at p. m.

TITO FLAYS CONFERENCE

By The Associated Press

BELGRADE, Oct. 26—Premier Marshal Tito in recent speeches at Fiume and Postojna denounced the Paris peace conference as a failure and said "the rights of our people were not recognized precisely by those who were our allies in the war." Tito said that nothing now remained of the Atlantic Charter "but empty phrases."

ARTIST OUTLINES HONEYMOON TRAGEDY

By The Associated Press

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 26—Charles Edward Beach, 28, a New York City artist, told his story today of how his 19-year-old bride died at the hands of three masked bandits during a honeymoon trip down the desolate and dangerous Balsas river.

Beach told newsmen his wife, the former Nan Peiker of Tulsa, Okla., was shot while asleep in his arms Wednesday night on the banks of the picturesque stream in southwest Mexico, and that she then spent an agonizing night in a canoe—her left shoulder almost torn away by a shotgun blast—as he paddled frantically for help.

When they reached the village of Totolapan Thursday morning, he continued, "Nan died in my arms while the San Miguel church bells were ringing."

Haggard, unshaven and still wearing blood-spattered trousers, Beach said the attack occurred after he and his bride of four months had paddled 25 miles down the river. He said they had made an early morning start on a trip during which they intended to defray expenses by taking pictures and assembling material for magazine articles.

They had eaten and laid down to sleep at about 8:30 p. m., he added.

"The next thing I knew," he told reporters, "was a tremendous blast, Nan's scream and we both jumped upright. There was no warning, nothing except the roar of that gun. The next thing we knew the three masked men were shining a flashlight in our faces.

"I tried in what Spanish I knew to insult them for shooting a woman and asked them to return my flashlight so that I could take care of Nan. They gave it back and then fled with our duffle bags, cameras, clothing and all the medical supplies we were carrying.

"I got her to the boat," he went on, "and made her as comfortable as I could on an air mattress. She was conscious—terribly conscious—and in terrific agony. It was about 9:30 when we started paddling down the river."

All night long he paddled under dark skies, seeking help, he said, but not until daybreak did he see any signs of civilization. "It was about 7:30 when I got her onto the beach," he said. "She was in a coma. I started giving her artificial respiration and at the same time calling for help. Nan died in my arms while the San Miguel church bells were ringing."

The village doctor who pronounced his wife dead, Beach said, told him she would not have lived under any circumstances. Beach's left thumb was torn by shotgun pellets.

Beach and his wife met while she was a student at Bryn Mawr. They decided on the Balsas trip, Beach said, after having visited the usual tourist spots in Mexico.

RAIL WORKER FINED

Russell Bush, 53, of the New York Central railroad camp was fined $50 and costs today in municipal court when he pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct. He was arrested on Hocking street Friday at 9:45 p. m.

Marion School Week Dates Set for Annual Visitation

Marion school week, annual visitation week for the city schools, will be observed this year Oct. 28 to Nov. 3. Parents and friends are invited to visit schools in order to observe pupils and teachers at work during a typical school day.

At Central Junior High school, W. E. Orcutt, principal, said that members of the Girl Reserves will act as hostesses and will help register visitors.

J. E. Frew, principal at Thomas A. Edison, and A. C. May, principal at Harding High school, have announced that parents and friends are cordially invited during this school visitation week.

At Vernon Heights, there will be two groups to take care of visitors, a reception group and a registering group from the student council. There will be a contest between homerooms with a banner going to the room which has the largest number of visitors.

Elementary school pupils have written invitations to parents and friends. In many schools there are to be contests among the various grades to secure the most visitors.

"School visitation week has been observed over the United States for a good many years. It is a real opportunity for anyone who wishes to see the schools at work. We hope that many Marion people will visit our schools during this week," said E. E. Holt, superintendent of Marion public schools.

LAUSCHE VISITS STRIP-MINES

Tours Southeastern Ohio in Wind-up Session of Campaign.

By The Associated Press

Gov. Frank J. Lausche carried his campaign for re-election into the strip-mining areas of southeastern Ohio Friday night while his opponent Thomas J. Herbert and John W. Bricker, Republican candidate for U. S. senator, addressed a Cleveland rally.

With the election only 10 days off, Lausche made stops at Cambridge, St. Clairsville, Bridgeport, Steubenville and East Liverpool, swinging through the heart of Ohio's strip-mining country.

At Bridgeport, he said that what he saw led him to fear that "unless the evils of strip mining are eliminated by corrective treatment, a huge area of Ohio will be unable to produce agriculturally for years to come."

"Oppose His Reelection"

Strip mine coal companies, Lausche said, have opposed his reelection and have balked his efforts of "the last two years to awaken the people of the state to the unnecessary waste of precious resources."

Unless stripping is controlled by an adequate law, the governor said, huge areas of Harrison, Belmont, Stark, Jefferson, Morgan, Perry, Tuscarawas and Guernsey counties will be "ruined for many years."

In Cleveland Herbert's speech was a renewal of his contention that Ohio schools would benefit from a Republican administration.

He repeated his assertion Governor Lausche promised increased appropriations for schools, then vetoed them when he became governor.

"The Republican candidates for state office this year include the men who rescued the schools from the sad financial plight for which a previous Democratic administration is responsible," Herbert said.

Bricker Hits New Deal

Bricker said "only in the face of the coming election" has the New Deal "relaxed from under public pressure" its "complete control over labor and industry."

Although the war has been over nearly a year and a half and 10 million soldiers have returned to peacetime pursuits, Bricker said, the Truman administration has "kept the nation in a state of emergency" when controls "should have been gradually eliminated so that by now our country would have been on a normal peacetime economic basis."

Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Blanchester, in a radio broadcast in Washington, and Sen. Robert A. Taft in a campaign speech at Salt Lake City lambasted the New Deal Friday night.

Brown said the threat of another coal strike was just another example of "New Deal chickens coming home to roost" and predicted that in January Republicans would try to make collective bargaining work and reduce government's power over labor.

Taft identified the "one great issue today between the Republicans and the Democratic administration" as:

"Shall progress in this country be based, hereafter as in the past, on maintaining freedom and equal justice, or a constant increase in the unrestrained power and unrestrained spending of a Washington bureaucracy?"

FIFTH OF OHIO CARS FOUND TO BE UNFIT

Police Traffic Check Results Are Released.

At least one in every five cars on Ohio roads is in unsafe driving condition, it is indicated by the final statewide compilation of the police traffic safety check carried out from May 15 to June 30.

The report, issued by Colonel Eugene T. Weatherly, chief of police of Cincinnati, and Ohio chairman of the nationwide drive, has been received by Chief of Police William E. Marks.

Municipal police, the state patrol and other enforcement agents checked 273,092 vehicles during the campaign, the report reveals. Of that number, 20.07 per cent, or 56,570 were found to contain obvious defects.

Total number of defects found was 81,093. Most frequent noted was faulty rear light, 16,491. Totals of other defects are listed by the report as follows: inadequate brakes, 11,279; horn not operating, 5,298; windshield wipers, 4,943; headlight beam out, 14,793; tires unsafe, 3,667; stop light out, 12,074; other obvious defects, 15,548.

Awards Made at Annual ONWA Convention

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26—Versatile Helen Waterhouse of the Akron Beacon Journal, recently returned from Yugoslavia where she covered the collaborationist trial of Draga Mihailovic, today was awarded top prize in the Ohio Newspaper Women's Association's writing and editing contest for 1946.

The winners in 39 contest classifications were announced at an ONWA convention luncheon by Mary McGarey of the Columbus Dispatch and Jo Bradley Reed of the Columbus Citizen, contest co-chairmen.

Prize money totaled nearly $1,000.

The Beacon Journal reporter won the $40 first prize in the feature triple entry division—news story, interview and feature. Second prize of $25 went to Dorothy Todd Foster of the Columbus Dispatch and third award, $15, was presented to Marj Heyduck of the Dayton Journal-Herald.

Miss Edna Dutton, society editor of The Star, is attending the convention.

2 MEN HELD IN OHIO WOMAN'S MURDER

By The Associated Press

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 26—Two men were held by police today for questioning in the garroting of Mrs. Anna Johnson, 50, whose partly clad body was found yesterday in a weed-grown field on Youngstown's west side.

A stocking stripped from her left leg was knotted around the woman's neck and her dress and undergarments had been removed. Coroner David A. Belinky of Mahoning county reported death due to strangulation. Rape had been attempted, he added.

Police captain Eugene McEvoy said one of the two men held for questioning had been seen with Mrs. Johnson about 10 p. m. Thursday, near the place where her body was found.

In the same vicinity two other women have been garroted in the past year and a half.

The nude body of Mrs. Bessie Tucker, strangled with panties, was found April 12, 1945, about two blocks away. Mrs. Sadie King was found Oct. 2, 1945, with her stockings knotted around her neck.

Dr. Belenky said the knots in each slaying were virtually the same.

NIGHT CLUB DISTURBANCE COSTS COLLEGE 4 PLAYERS

Athletic Department Suspends Gridders Involved in Row.

By The Associated Press

GAMBIER, O., Oct. 26—A disturbance in a night club has cost the hapless Kenyon college football squad the services of four players.

The four, accused of unnecessary roughness in an encounter with two sheriff's deputies, were dismissed from the squad yesterday by athletic director Pat Patini. The team has not won a football game since 1943.

Britain's war-time prime minister gave us a clue. Referring to his sensational "iron curtain" address at Fulton, Mo., last spring, he declared that it had been "outpaced and overpassed by the movements of events," and added:

"At the time I did not believe that the Soviet government wanted war but that what they wanted was the fruits of war. I still fervently hope and trust that this is still correct, and on the whole I believe it is still correct."

Mr. Churchill left a most disquieting impression which was referred to by minister of state Hector McNeil in discussing the outlook for European peace. Said Mr. McNeil:

"I cannot share the pessimism. If I do not misinterpret Mr. Churchill, which he offered in his speech."

Why So Many?

So much for our premise. Now why should Moscow find it necessary to maintain so many troops in the occupied areas?

That's a momentous question but fortunately there is more than one answer to it, or so it seems to me. If there were only one answer it would mean war, and Mr. Churchill wouldn't have been able to say that he still believed the Soviet Union didn't want war.

We are living in dangerous times, but there's no indication that Russia or any of the other powers want war. On the contrary there is every sign that they want peace. And we don't need to soar into the clouds to explain this pious hope.

There is no country in Europe which would be capable of waging a major war of aggression now. Potentially Russia is a titanic force, but she is exhausted from her efforts in the last conflict. She lacks the wherewithal to make big scale war.

Then why the great force of soldiers in occupied territories? The business of fighting-men isn't necessarily to fight. Their duties include preservation of order, the maintenance of their government's authority and, by their very presence in strong force, the prevention of any intrusion of occupied territories by other nations. There I believe we find the most logical answers to our query, although it's important to note that it is a vast economy for a government to have its standing army living off the land in other countries.

Russia Extends Zone

As a result of the war, Russia has extended her zone of influence westward into Central Europe, and has overrun most of the Balkan peninsula. She has created a great new politico-economic empire. But she is in process of consolidating that empire. Some of its units still are shaky. It's not difficult, therefore, to understand the presence of Soviet troops at strategic points in this area.

Then, too, some hair-trigger situations remain to be straightened out. One of these is the Soviet-Turkish dispute over control of the Dardanelles — and armed might is a strong argument. There is the Greek imbroglio. There is Austria, which Moscow is firmly bent on adding to its zone of influence, and most certainly won't move Soviet troops away until the matter is ironed out.

In short, Russia apparently figures that packing a gun gives added authority—and that's an argument which it is difficult to answer. The Communists are direct actionists. Thus far they have used their veto power to maintain their position in the UN security council, and they have used their armies to fortify their domination of eastern Europe.

But the horse-sence of it is that the Russians don't want another world war at this juncture. For that reason they are likely to try to avoid even a small war, because even a minor upheaval could develop into a global conflict.

COLUMBUS WORKERS RIDE CARS, BUSES

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 26—For the first time this month Columbus citizens rode street cars and buses to work this morning.

Virtually normal service was restored last night—six hours after striking CIO Transport Workers union members rejected an arbitration agreement—but too late to help much with the home-from-work rush.

The Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. daily hauls an estimated 300,000 fares on its 277 pieces of rolling stock, which include streetcars, trolley buses and motor coaches. About 645 workers were affected by the work stoppage.

Under the agreement the company and the union each will choose an arbitrator, who will select a third party to work with them on issues of wage increases, time-and-a-half pay for holiday work and free transportation for all employes in the bargaining unit.

Mackenzie Says Big Russ Army Not Set for War

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Winston Churchill says he has evidence to support his suggestion in the British house of commons that Russia has more than 2,000,000 men on a war footing in Soviet-occupied Europe, and he describing his speech as a "serious warning"—but leaves it to us to figure out its exact significance.

Britain's war-time prime minister gave us a clue. Referring to his sensational "iron curtain" address at Fulton, Mo., last spring, he declared that it had been "outpaced and overpassed by the movements of events," and added:

WOMAN FOUND NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

By The Associated Press

SNOW HILL, Md., Oct. 26—Mrs. Ina P. Krumholz, 43, Princess Anne tavern keeper, was freed today after an all-male jury, deliberating only 17 minutes, acquitted her of a charge that she shot and killed a Vineland, N. J., poultry dealer.

The verdict was returned last night ending the five-day trial in a happy mood for the handsome married woman who, on the witness stand, had maintained her innocence in the death of Robin Roscoe Riley.

Her eyes filled with tears on hearing the verdict. Seconds later she smiled gladly, shaking hands with her attorneys.

The state had failed in its attempt to enmesh her in a web of circumstantial evidence, but before the jury received the case, cross-examination of one of the defendant's sons brought a tense moment.

Charles F. Taylor, 20, a son by a former marriage, had testified he had complained to his mother about her association with the 38-year-old Riley the night of June 4, a day before he was shot.

Then the state asked if he, Taylor, had killed the poultry buyer. Defense objections were sustained, however, and the court ruled that Taylor need not reply. He remained silent.

Mrs. Krumholz was arrested in a Cincinnati, O., restaurant, where she had procured a job as a waitress.

Martin S. Pettit Dies at Home Near Ashley

Martin S. Pettit, 66, died on his farm near Ashley last night, a few hours after suffering a stroke. He had not been ill.

Mrs. Hazel Burnett of 247 South Hugo street is in City hospital suffering from head injuries and from a possible fractured hip caused when she was struck by a car at the intersection of South Main and Columbia streets at 7:45 p. m. The car was driven by Kenneth D. Longacre, 22, of Columbia. Police said Longacre was making a left turn from East Columbia street onto South Main and Mrs. Burnett was crossing South Main from east to west. She was taken to City hospital in the Boyd and Uncapher ambulance.

Mrs. Mary Phillips of 490 East Center street suffered a leg injury when she was struck by a car driven by J. W. Casteel, 55, of Hotel Marion on West Center street at 10:35 a. m. She was taken to a physician by the Gunder ambulance.

Mrs. Melvin McKnight of 1 South Grand avenue and Carl E. Jeffers of near Marion were treated for face lacerations at the hospital and released following an accident on Leader street at Chestnut at 12:30 p. m. Drivers of the cars were Melvin H. McKnight, 24, of the South Grand avenue address and Jeffers. Police said McKnight, northbound on Leader street, attempted to pass a car which had stopped and collided with Jeffers' car which was coming in the opposite direction.

Car driven by Louis W. Keefer, 36, of 507 Winsor street, and Francis E. Newman, 53, of Prospect collided at State and East Center streets at 9:30 p. m. Police said Newman was waiting for a stop light when his car was struck from the rear by Keefer's machine. Keefer said he did not see the car ahead of him in time to stop because of fog.

Donald F. Miller, 25, of 464 West Columbia street told police his car was struck by another which did not stop, on South Main street at 10:40 p. m.

THREE FROM PROSPECT FINED

Francis H. Cloud, 25, Clyde A. Rush, 23, and Robert A. Skane, 25, all of Prospect were each fined $25 and costs in municipal court today when they pleaded guilty to charges of intoxication and disorderly conduct. Police said they were arrested following an altercation in a South Main street cafe.

HOGS SELL HIGH AT UNION COUNTY SALE

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 26 — The sale of 50 registered boars and gilts of six breeds held at the fairgrounds here this week under sponsorship of the county swine improvement committee brought average prices of $72.67.

Highest price for a gilt was $115 for a Duroc consigned by Ralph E. Davis and Sons of Richwood and sold to Broadview Farms, Gallaway. Davis and Son also had the top boar of the sale, $150, being paid for it by Glenn Bruce of Richwood.

Other prices paid for other breeds were:

Chester White gilt, $80, sold to Paul E. Herd of East Liberty and boar, $95, sold to Paul Tossey of Marysville. Both animals were consigned by C. F. Diehl of East Liberty.

A Hampshire boar sold for $117.50 to Lee DeVitt and Sons of Marysville, and gilt brought $57.50, sold to I. D. Wells of Richwood. Both animals were consigned by G. R. Bennett of Millcreek Center.

A Poland China gilt brought $57.50, consigned by Hall and Richardson of Peoria, and was purchased by Harold E. Orth of Mt. Victory, and the same price was paid for a gilt consigned by Guy A. Robinson of Milford Center, and sold to J. Edward Jones of Richwood. Top boar was consigned by Robinson and sold to O. E. Barks and Son of Marion for $57.50.

A Berkshire gilt sold for $75, consigned by Richard Streng of Marysville, and was purchased by James B. Ryan of Milford Center. A boar brought $80, consigned by Joe H. Temple of Richwood and purchased by Waldo Patten of Marysville.

A Spotted Poland gilt went for $70, consigned by R. F. Bell and Son of Richwood, and sold to Loren Harder of Mt. Victory. A boar brought $62.50, consigned by W. D. Wood of Richwood, and sold to Marvin Morse of Plain City.

IN FAMILY SHOOTING. Dr. Frank H. Lasher, 63, widely-known New York surgeon, shot and killed his wife, his mother-in-law and seriously wounded his Navy veteran son, Douglas, above, after which he fired four bullets into his own head, dying a few hours later. Young Lasher, who is expected to recover, advances the belief that his father's act resulted from worries over the boy's interrupted medical career due to a glandular condition suffered since his discharge.

Roosevelt Planned Trip to London, Doctor Says

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 — Vice-Admiral Ross McIntire, Franklin D. Roosevelt's physician throughout his Presidency, said yesterday in his new book, "White House Physician," that the President was planning a trip to London at the time of his death.

McIntire says that the 1945 trip was projected at the request of Winston Churchill, and that Roosevelt also planned an extensive trip to the Pacific war theater and China after the United Nations meeting at San Francisco, a rest prior to these activities being the object of the Warm Springs trip during which the President died. The book goes into detail regarding the death.

McIntire seeks to put an end to reports that the President was ill during the 1944 campaign and his trip to Yalta. Up until the very morning of his death, the doctor says, Roosevelt's heart and arteries gave no clue that he might be subject to cerebral hemorrhage, which killed him.

BOY HELD FOR ROBBERY

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Oct. 26—A 10-year-old boy was held today on an armed robbery charge in connection with the $3 holdup of a drug store proprietor, Hyman Buzney. Detectives said the 10-year-old held a revolver against Buzney while a 15-year-old accomplice robbed the proprietor Thursday night. The two also were implicated with three others in a house burglary the same night.

LaRue Holds Church Dedication Services

Special to The Star

LARUE—On completion of redecorating of the interior of the LaRue Baptist church, dedication services were held Sunday afternoon with Rev. Pepper, director of Ohio Town and Country churches, Granville, as speaker. The invocation was given by Rev. C. A. Hutchinson of the LaRue Methodist church and special music by the choir under the direction of Rev. L. G. Parish, Baptist pastor. Benediction was given by Rev. J. W. Horne, retired minister of LaRue.

New decorations and improvements include a new finish of oil paint on the interior of the church including class rooms and vestibule, new frosted glass windows with colored top sections, addition of a new class room in the balcony and a new pump in the basement to remove seeping water. Floors were repainted and varnished and seats and choir chairs varnished and carpets cleaned.

The redecorating was sponsored by the Christ's Helpers class of the church school and the greater part of the work was done by members of the class. Funds were raised by a house to house canvass.

The decorating committee was composed of Mrs. Joe Glass, Miss Merle Longberry, Mrs. Ralph Oberdier, Mrs. W. F. Kniffin and J. W. Freshour.

Letters from Our Readers

NO FINAL ANSWER

Editor of The Star: If you have already ceased printing letters regarding the two sermons on drunkards and their ultimate end, let me congratulate you.

If you are still printing such letters, may this be the last! I say this not because I am about to state a view which I expect will be the final answer to the matter, for surely anyone who gives it a little thought will realize that in a problem so definitely relative there is no final answer. My reason for wishing this to be the last letter is that I feel that the space taken up for the subject can be devoted to a more worthy topic. In a time of impending national and international crisis such as faces us today, it is to the interest of all to use every facility possible to further understanding of our problems, rather than an attempt to force personal views on other people. How many of us have stopped to think that for every idea that we hold to be true and based on indisputable grounds, there is another person holding exactly the opposite view, and he too feels that he alone is absolutely correct? Who is to judge? For those who value the Bible as final authority, remember: "Judge not, that ye be not judged." For those who do not accept the Bible as final authority, allow to others the same power of decision which you exercise.

An ancient philosopher of some note claimed that no man who had knowledge did evil. A contemporary theologian of wide fame and merit expressed the same idea by stating that an increase of the rational element in man would mean an increase in the moral element. Please, instead of devoting precious space to Bible quoting and quibbling, let us agree to operate on a common ground of understanding which can be accepted by everyone, regardless of race, creed, color or nationality. Such a common ground basis in which every party gives and takes with only the common good in mind would go a long way in helping us (and in fact the world) solve our problems. I would wish to apply this not only to the case of drunkards," but to what is perhaps our greatest problem (with the exception of the aforesaid!): How can we effect a change from this armistice period we are in now to real peace, as visioned by altruistic statesmanship?

Honor Marion Couple at Prospect Meeting

Dr. and Mrs. John E. Rush of 131½ North State street who will observe their fifteenth wedding anniversary Monday, were honored at a meeting of Prospect Chapter No. 69, Order of the Eastern Star, recently. A potluck supper preceded the meeting. The table was centered with a cake decorated in gold and Robert Jones sang "Because" Later in the evening Mrs Anna Jones read an original poem dedicated to Mrs Rush to an accompaniment played by Mrs Irma Wottring. Mrs Rush was presented a corsage of yellow roses and Dr. Rush a boutonniere from the chapter Miss Ruth Hatch sang "A Perfect Day" and "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses" The celebrants also received a potted plant, a gift from friends Dr and Mrs Rush have been members of the chapter for 30 years Greetings were extended by Mrs Helen Stuckey, worthy matron of the chapter The day also marked the 31st wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs Rudolph Stuckey.

Miami Conservancy District All Paid For

By The Associated Press

DAYTON, O Oct 26—The Miami conservancy district, on which Dayton and Miami valley residents began making payments 23 years ago has now been completely paid for, the conservancy board of directors announced Friday.

Collections from taxpayers totaling $1,376,000 which were to have been made in December 1946, and June, 1947, will be canceled, Col E A Deeds, president of the Miami conservancy district, announced.

The conservancy district has been able to liquidate completely its debt, it was pointed out, from reserve funds set aside for contingencies which did not arise

The entire cost of the conservancy district has been estimated at between $45,000,000 and $50,000 000.

The only cost to taxpayers in the conservancy area from now on, Col. Deeds continued, will be for improvements and maintenance No estimate on this amount is available.

The Flag OF LIBERTY

Marion is expending 20% less for each of her school children than the average city in Ohio Do we think less of our youngsters here in Marion, or do other cities in Ohio appreciate theirs more?

Most of these other cities have proposals before their voters this fall that will, if passed, make it possible for them to do still more for their children than we have been doing for ours

To maintain our position with relation to the other schools of our state we must vote "FOR" this 2-mill levy

Marion Couple Given Honor on 40th Anniversary

As tribute to Mr and Mrs John Bauman of 527 Bellefontaine avenue, who will celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary Sunday several "children," of Marion and formerly of Marion will remember them with greetings and good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauman who have no children of their own, have, through the years they have lived in Marion, "taken under their wing" young people who have gone out to be of service to their communities and to the world They are active members of Oakland Evangelical church, and among their "sons" are several younger Evangelical ministers Those whom they have encouraged with counsel, prayers, letters, and with financial aid have gone out into various states, South America, Africa and India, as pastors, missionaries, nurses, teachers and Christian laymen

Among the "family" who owe both spiritual guidance and material help to the Baumans are Rev Howard Buckley and Rev Charles Dutt both of Columbus Rev Wilson Jaycox of Philadelphia Miss Vera Ralston who is employed in a Chicago hospital, Miss Alice Mae Doome who went from Asbury college, Wilmore, Ky as a missionary to India, Mrs Leonard Weinman of Toledo who was formerly Miss Mary Esther Phelps of Marion, and Miss Maxine Cashell of Marion who has attended school in Indiana Other neighbors and friends will join these younger people in wishing "Mother and Daddy" Bauman many more years together

Coming here from Poughkeepsie N Y, when the Wilson Bohannan Co located here, the Baumans became members of Oakland church where Mrs Bauman is prominent in women's work, and Mr Bauman is a trustee Both have been on the board of stewards of the church and have been active in various projects of the church.

U. S. REVOKES ORDER CUTTING BREAD SIZE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct 26 — The agriculture department yesterday revoked a government food order which required bakers to cut the size of their bread loaves 10 per cent to save wheat.

This requirement was put into effect last winter during the critical world food shortage

The order also prohibited consignment selling of bread and bakery products as well as bakery acceptance of unsold bakery products It also required bakers to enrich white bread and rolls.

Officials said they expected most bakeries to continue voluntarily to enrich many of their products.

The department said the order was revoked because of improved supply of cereal grains and because of President Truman's announced policy of accelerating government decontrols of foods

The department also canceled a number of other food orders including a delegation of authority to the OPA to ration meats fats, oils, cheese and processed foods because none of these items are now rationed

However, the OPA retains authority to ration sugar

Mysterious Missiles Fall on French Soil

By The Associated Press

PARIS Oct 26 More mysterious missiles have fallen this week on French territory, leaving French authorities puzzled as to their nature and their origin

The gendarmerie of Sens in the Yonne department, reported last Wednesday the fall of a missile believed to be a rocket near the village of Les Chiagnots, about 100 miles southeast of Paris Inhabitants of Chalons-Sur-Marne, 100 miles east of the capital last night saw in the sky a fire ball which they said fell on the roof of a house and caused some damage

No loss of life was reported in either case

PLEDGES MOSLEM AID

NEW DELHI, Oct 26—Liaquat Ali Khan one of five Moslem League members sworn in today as ministers in India's interim government promised that the Moslems would work in harmony with our colleagues' The new finance minister told a news conference the Moslems 'have no desire that this government should become an arena of strife"

Prehistoric Pueblo Indians laid claim to New Mexican lands long years before the advent of the Navajo and Apache These semi-nomadic groups are generally regarded as late-comers to the Southwest

STOCK FAVORITES MAKE SOME GAINS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—Scattered stock market favorites made a little further progress today although numerous leaders maintained lower drift in another of the lowest Saturday sessions of the past two years

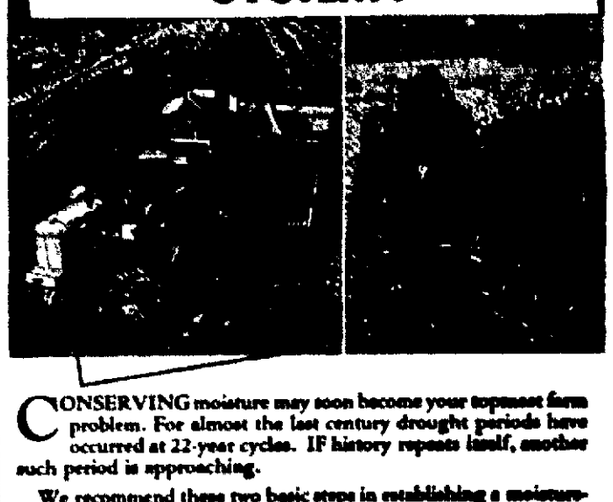
Customers generally held to the cautious side, brokers said, because of apprehension over growing labor disputes including a threatened coal strike and the move of automotive unions to reopen wage contracts in that field The thought of a possible economic stumble in coming months also was seen as a speculative and investment restraint The flow of pleasing earnings and dividends propped a few issues but failed to buoy others concerned The inclination of buyers, it was suggested, was to stand aside pending political and other developments

The ticker tape loafed from the start There was a sprinkling of gains and losses running to a point or so but fractional variations ruled near the close A wide assortment of pivotals was unchanged Transfers of around 300 000 shares was about in line with the aggregate of the previous short stretch

Auxiliary Votes Aid To Community Foundation

The Auxiliary to Bird-McGinnis Post No 162 American Legion, made a donation to the Community Fund at a meeting last night in the Legion Dugout. A potluck supper preceded the meeting Plans were made to buy a flag for the Brownie troop at Oak Street school An announcement was made of the fall conference to be held Nov. 13 in Columbus, and several members are planning to attend the meeting. The auxiliary also made plans for Armistice day and to serve a lunch at the Dugout in the evening following the parade. The door prize was won by Mrs. Cleo Guy At the next meeting Nov. 22, Mrs. Mary Rogers, Mrs. Geneva Dripps, Mrs Blanche DeLong, and Mrs. Hester Harriman, whose birthdays are in November, will be in charge of the social hour.

Does Your Farm Need A MOISTURE-SAVING SYSTEM?



CONSERVING moisture may soon become your topmost farm problem. For almost the last century drought periods have occurred at 22-year cycles. IF history repeats itself, another such period is approaching.

We recommend these two basic steps in establishing a moisture-saving system with your regular Allis-Chalmers tractor and companion equipment:

1. Harvest more legume and grass seeds, soybeans and sorghums. Their fibrous root systems soak up rainfall, keep moisture on the slopes and hold soil in the grip of intertwined roots. Your All-Crop Harvester can be easily adjusted to save all these seeds . . . over 100 crops all told.
2. Build a contour and terrace system with your own Allis-Chalmers tractor and moldboard plow, direct attached disc plow or pull-type disc tiller Ponds, reservoirs and waterways, too, can be built with these outfits

We will be glad to furnish you with free copies of two Allis-Chalmers booklets, "Harvest the All-Crop Way" and "You Have What It Takes to Contour and Terrace." They explain how you can start your moisture-saving system now.

ST. MARY BATTLES LIMA ST. ROSE TO 6-ALL DEADLOCK

Irish Lose Early Lead To Tie Saints on Fog-Obscured Field

By GEORGE ROEST

Playing on a muddy, fog-obscured field, St Mary and Lima St Rose fought to a 6 to 6 draw, the slippery underfooting accounting for its share of the tackles last night at Harding stadium. A crowd of approximately 1,600 braved the damp weather to see the contest.

The initial tally of the game came in the first quarter after Schuler's punt from midfield rolled dead on the Lima 11. On second down O'Conner's punt was blocked by Joe Mamiaci and Bob Tobin recovered in the end zone.

Lima Scores in 2nd

Lima's score came in the second quarter, when, on the first play after Lima received Scouler's kick on the 45, Callahan on a cross buck to the right raced into the St Mary secondary, nearly side stepped the Man o Safety Kr-z and ran all 55 yards for the score.

Werley attempted the extra point for the Marion Irish and Devlin attempting to run for the point fumbled the pass from center. St Mary linemen piling on behind the line of scrimmage.

Lima gained the edge in every department except passing. It rose ran up 7 first downs against 4 for St Mary and rushing from scrimmage netted 181 yards while St Mary netted only 15 yards. St Mary gained 40 yards through the air while St Rose got a mere 4 got that on the last play of the game.

Although Lima was ahead in the statistics most of the contest was played in their territory, Marion intercepting five of their passes and recovering their two fumbles to keep them at a disadvantage. The deepest penetration made by Lima besides their TD was to the St. Mary 29 in the first quarter while St. Mary penetrated to the 21, the 17, and the seven in the second, third, and fourth quarters.

St. Mary Kicks Off

Defending the north goal St. Mary kicked to St. Rose. Callahan took Werley's kick on the 20 for a 12-yard runback, however, there was a disagreement as to the ball to be used and after a change, Werley again kicked to Callahan this time on the 15 for a nine-yard runback.

Lima got to their 31 O'Connor punting on forth down to Murphy for an eight-yard runback to the 43. Three tries put Marion on the 30 and Schuler's kick died on the St. Rose 11. Callahan picked up nothing and Maniaci blocked O'Connor attempting punt, Tobin recovering to put the Marion Irish in the lead. Werley's kick was unsuccessful.

Werley kicked to Callahan who made a 19-yard runback. The Lima Irish drove to the Marion 29 before losing the ball on downs. The quarter ended with St. Mary picking up a first down on their 40.

Punting Duel Ensues

A punting duel ensued in the first part of the second quarter, Schuler on the second exchange getting off a boot of 39 yards to Mulcahy on the Lima 49 for a five-yard runback Callahan shooting 55 yards to score. Devlin was stopped trying for the point.

O'Conner kicked to Tobin on the 34. Marion picked up nine yards in three attempts, Schuler kicking to Mulcahy for a run back of five yards to the Lima 30. Lima picked up a first down on the 40 and Callahan's fumble was recovered on the 29 by Werley. Stuber attempted to pass losing the ball on the Marion 46.

Three plays later Stuber intercepted O'Conner's pass from the 45 on the 22. Stuber lost three running from pass formation and attempted a pass to Huber Anderson quick-kicked to the Lima 21, the St. Mary ends going down to the right on the ball in case the Lima safety should attempt a run back.

Stuber intercepted a pass on the Lima 47, running to the Lima 21 and a penalty advanced the ball 15 yards closer to the Lima goal. Stuber attempted a pass to Huber and the half ended.

Intercepts Pass

Early in the third quarter Smith intercepted Mulcahy's pass from the Lima 31 on the Lima 40 going to the 30 before being downed. A pass Stuber to Schuler, was good for 11 yards to the 17 and a first down.

St. Mary was penalized to the 22 for off-side and Callahan intercepted Stuber's pass on the 16. Callahan got five and Devlin made four. Callahan was stopped short of a first down. O'Conner punted to Murphy on the Marion 35 for a ten yard runback. Marion gained five in three attempts, Schuler kicking from the 50 to Mulcahy on the 20 for a five yard runback. Mulcahy picked up 15 yards, fumbling on the 40 with St. Mary recovering. Baldauf got two and Murphy lost eight on the tandem bull trick.

The play in which the center, running from end, carries the ball was unknown to the officials and a five yard penalty resulted putting the ball on the Lima 47. Anderson punted to the Lima 28 and Mulcahy lost four as the quarter ended.

Callahan started the final period with a run of 22 yards to his own 38. O'Connor got three and Callahan slipped, losing two although sliding several yards past the scrimmage line.

Baldauf dragged down Callahan's pass on the Lima 38 going to the Lima 34 before being downed. Schuler was forced to punt from the 38 and after Callahan made nothing, Stuber intercepted a pass on the Lima 35 going to the 29.

St. Mary opened up with a spread formation Stuber heaving one to Schuler for nine yards. Stuber's pass was blocked. Baldauf got to the 19 and a first down. Stuber passed to Huber on the 10 and Schuler got one and a first on the nine. Stuber got to the seven. Stuber's pass was incomplete and Stuber lateraled to Huber for a loss of five yards.

St. Rose took over on the 12, punted from the 20 and Mulcahy dragged down Schuler's pass from the 44 on the 20. A series of short gains and an eight yard pass put the ball on the Lima 47 as the game ended.

CABBIES TO MEET DAYTON TONIGHT

Semi-Pros Battle Rockets in Tilt at Stadium.

Out to improve on their record of two and one the Marion Safety Cab team will meet the Dayton Rockets at the stadium tonight.

Coach Fetter has been working on a five man line for the contest and also has been stressing ball handling in the weeks' practices. The team seems in good shape for this contest and should prove to be quite a match for the Dayton aggregation.

The Dayton team is reported to be one of the better semi-pro teams from that city and although it is not undefeated it is reported to have power and speed which make for a good team in any league.

[illegible] was to have been played on the Rockets' home field but there were no available lights and it was decided to play at the Marion stadium at the time as the game was canceled.

The probable starters for the Cabbies tonight are Roseberry and Richardson at the ends, Dunn (or Palmer) or Sampies at tackle, Dunn did not go to the Fort Wayne contest last Sunday but will be going at his 250 pounds tonight. Lewis and Stroopel will draw the ass guarders at the guard positions and Benson will play center. Probable backfield starters will be Simmons, quarterback, Belknap and Calagno halves, and Harney fullback.

Kenton Loses Scoring Scramble at Celina

Special to The Star

KENTON—The Kenton Wildcats lost the traveling trophy of the Western Buckeye league when they fumbled on the short end of a spectators' thriller at Celina last night 26 to 25. Brown, Kenton's elusive offtackle scored the first touchdown from the 10 yard line after setting up the play with a long return of a Celina punt to the winner's 33 yard stripe. Brown also converted on a place kick.

Celina tallied a touchdown in the second quarter when Smith went 80 yards into pay dirt but failed to convert. Kenton went ahead 13 to 6 in the same quarter when Brown took a 30 yard pass from Wright to the one and then took the ball over the goal line on the next play. The conversion was wide.

Kenton took the second half kickoff and marched down the field on short gains and Brown again went over from close up and then missed the convert on kick. The Kenton second team went into the game and on the second play after the kickoff, Green of Celina went 70 yards into the promised land and Smith bisected the uprights making the score 19 to 13 in favor of Kenton, as the third quarter ended.

In the fourth stanza Green of Celina scampered over from the nine yard line and Smith again converted to give Celina a 20 to 19 lead. Hemmeyer tallied another for Celina from the 10 and Smith missed the conversion. With three minutes left a pass from Wright to Hall was good on the 20 and Hall ran the remaining distance for the score. The Wildcats elected to run the ball for the extra point but failed to get over.

Claridon-Caledonia Grid Tilt Postponed

The six-man football game between Claridon and Caledonia which was to have been played yesterday afternoon was postponed until Monday starting at 3:30 p. m.

The Claridon field was considered too muddy for play yesterday and officials decided to postpone the game.

Earlier in the season Caledonia defeated the Claridon lads 30 to 18. In the first year of play in the abbreviated gridiron game Caledonia is undefeated and now have cinched the title in the Marion county league regardless of the outcome of the game Monday.

Mt. Gilead Team To Play at Marysville

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE, Oct. 26 — Marysville and Mt. Gilead High school gridders will clash at Memorial field here Monday night in the local homecoming game and a tilt that may decide the Mid-State League championship. If Marysville wins it will clinch the league crown for the second consecutive year. The game was to have been played Friday, but was postponed because of an all-day rain that day.

ELLSWORTH VINES IN RICHMOND GOLF MEET

By The Associated Press

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 26—Bespectacled Ellsworth Vines, the lanky Californian who deserted big-time tennis to become a golf star, had his fingers crossed today as he teed off in the third round of the $10,000 Richmond open golf tournament.

This is the first journey on the professional circuit this year that Vines has gone out for the third 18-hole test with as much as a tie for the lead.

Vines started the week over the 6,354-yard layout of the Hermitage Country club deadlocked for the first 36 holes with little Ben Hogan, the Hershey, Pa., sharp-shooter, Australian Jim Ferrier, of Chicago and Herman Keiser, of Akron, O. All had scores of 141.

He said Keiser, who rose to fame as the victor in the masters classic at Augusta, Ga., last spring is the "best among the newcomers."

"You have to give it to Herman Keiser," Vines said. "He'll probably develop faster than any of the rest. Of course he's an old campaigner, but he's just starting to win."

Vines shot a three-under-par 69 yesterday to equal the low card turned in by Keiser in Thursday's initial play. Keiser had a par 72 yesterday. Hogan toured the course in 70, and Ferrier carded a 71.

Trailing them by two strokes was Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., who leads the amateurs.

Other 36-hole scores included: Jack Gray, Ashland, O., 75-79—154.

Andy Moesary, Salem, O., 77-78—155.

"PERFECT" OHIO HIGH TEAMS FADING FAST

Unbeaten, Untied 11's Rarer Than Vacant Apartments.

By The Associated Press

Halfway through a season of upsets, the unbeaten, untied Ohio high school football teams are rarer than a vacant apartment.

Barberton dropped its first verdict in seven starts to Alliance Thursday, 7 to 6, while Bowling Green, defending champs of the Buckeye league, messed up Fremont Ross' unbeaten record with a 12 to 0 setback Friday night.

Lima Central, the team that handed Bowling Green its one defeat, continued winning Thursday by smothering Van Wert 45-7. Most of the others on the unbeaten and untied list also added easy triumphs.

Campbell Memorial, undefeated since 1944, routed Niles 20-0 and nearby Youngstown Woodrow Wilson handed Youngstown Rayen an even more decisive whitewashing, 38-0.

Upper Arlington, with a 26-0 blasting of Columbus Central, and Grandview, with a 21-6 victory over Bexley, continued unbeaten and untied at the top among Columbus area teams.

Loveland added its 10th in a row over North College Hill Thursday 33-0.

Marysville Auto Races Booked at Fairground

Big races of the [illegible] at Marysville tomorrow on the Union County fairgrounds that in which Bob Simpson of Marion will race against such speedway stars as Red Bales of Cleveland, Frank Luptow of Detroit, and Mike Salay of South Bend.

Salay was the winner of the Marysville sweepstakes held several weeks ago. Bales placing second. Luptow posted the fastest time of the day and is one of the hottest drivers on the circuits.

Other crack drivers entered are Harry King and Harry Rooney of Detroit and Chuck Barker of Dayton.

Simpson has been driving for Harrold Monk McCurdy this season and will be at the wheel of the Dreyer tomorrow. George Sabon recently discharged from the Air Forces may pilot the Murray Riley.

Six events are carded for the sweepstakes including a helmet dash and several elimination runs. Time trials will begin at 12 and the first race will get underway promptly at 2:30 p. m.

OSU and Minnesota Collide In Tilt Promising Something New

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 26—Ohio State and Minnesota collide here today in a Western conference football game promising something different in the 25-year-old Buck-Gopher grid relationship.

Minnesota and State clashes in the past usually have featured hard-charging running attacks. Today's rival appears to develop into a thrilling aerial summary.

Coach Bernie Bierman's Gophers, long noted for grinding out ground yardage, boast the best forward passing average in the Big Nine—six completions in 11 tries—and the nation's leading thrower as well, left halfback Everett Faunce who has completed 25 of 36 in two conference and two non-conference games.

Ohio State's Big Nine record of 19 completions in 27 tosses is not as impressive. Buck Coach Paul Bixler, who admits his team hasn't been throwing well enough, has taken steps to improve the aerial attack.

He nominated as starting quarterback George Spencer whose chief stock-in-trade is a strong passing arm that operates best from the "T" formation. Spencer is having precedence over first stringer D. Palmer, out with an injury, and Bill Doolittle whose flipping leaves much to be desired.

The weatherman, too, promised ideal conditions for an aerial game, forecasting "Fair and cool today."

Whatever the conditions, one thing appeared certain: more than 70,000 fans—the largest crowd ever to watch a Minnesota-Ohio U. aggregation and the second straight Saturday sellout for Ohio stadium—will witness this again meeting between the two schools.

That series, spread out over a quarter century, Ohio State has won four and lost three.

NOTRE DAME READY TO BREAK IOWA JINX

By The Associated Press

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 26 — Notre Dame, which has conquered Illinois, Pittsburgh and Purdue, attempts to add Iowa to the victims list today—and thus break the jinx that has spelled defeat for every Irish team in the past at Iowa City.

The Hawkeyes shocked off the Irish in 1921 and 1939 and both times Notre Dame entered the game undefeated. In 1941 [illegible] brought with it a supreme winning string, but even the great play of its captain and Bernie Anderson — now Iowa coach — failed to stop the Hawkeyes who captured a 7-6 triumph.

A capacity crowd of 52,000 was expected to root for the Hawkeyes and have but one to Michigan 14-7 and a competing record over North Dakota State, Nebraska and Indiana.

Iowa was at full strength for the contest but two of the Irish starters, halfback Bob Livingstone and end Jack Zilly, were laid up with leg injuries.

Marion Rider Entered in Waldo Cycle Race

Scout Copeland, local cyclist is one of the hot shot riders entered in the Twelve Star Tourist Trophy motorcycle races to be held on the half mile dirt track one mile north of Waldo on Route 98. These races were to have been held Sept. 29 but were rained out after but two events were run.

Other name cyclers who will be in Copeland's 12 star event are Art Heck of Willard and Harry Bellville of Marysville. A host of others will also be on hand.

The state championship race is sponsored by the Triangle Motorcycle club of Marion. A new and better program than was planned for the first running has been set up. Time trials are set for 12 and the first event will get underway at 2 p. m. The admission at the gate will be $1 and tickets from the races which were rained out will be honored.

Nation Celebrates Navy Day But Fans Keep Eyes on Army

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—The country celebrates Navy day today but the eyes of football followers will be on the Army as the nation's No. 1 team seeks its 24th straight victory.

Highlighted by the Army-Duke game at the Polo grounds, big games and sell-out crowds are the rule in virtually every sector but like Army, the rest of the top ten elevens face formidable competition.

Wallace Wade's Blue Devils present an imposing challenge to the Cadets. A powerful Duke line averaging 205 pounds is the obstacle Cadets Blanchard and Davis and their teammates have to hurdle.

Notre Dame at Iowa

Notre Dame goes to Iowa City for a real test with Iowa's Hawkeyes, noted on two occasions in the past for toppling the Irish on Iowa soil. The Hawkeyes did it in 1921 and again in 1939. A record crowd of 54,000 is expected for the encounter.

Another of the current big three risks its record when Texas meets Rice in Houston in a game that may send the balance of the Southwest conference campaign into a consolation race.

The south is loaded with big games, too. Tennessee, ranking No. 4, faces a tartar in Wake Forest at Knoxville. Georgia, rated seventh strongest in the nation, plays at Furman and North Carolina, rated No. 10, entertains Florida.

In the midwest, Michigan and Illinois clash in an important Big Nine contest before an expected 86,000. Minnesota goes to Columbus for a meeting with Ohio State and 75,000 are expected. In non-conference competition, Indiana travels to Nebraska, Northwestern entertains College of Pacific, and Purdue Invades Pittsburgh.

UCLA Meets Santa Clara

University of California at Los Angeles, the leader on the West Coast and currently ranking No. 5 in the nation foregoes conference competition to meet Santa Clara. Southern California visits Stanford in the biggest sectional attraction.

In the east, Navy has to take second billing to Army as the headliner, although the Middies will draw a bigger crowd simply because Franklin Field where the Middies meet Penn can hold the anticipated 75,000. And Penn is favored to spoil the Navy's own day.

In the Southern conference, Alabama entertains Kentucky, Auburn plays at Georgia Tech, Louisiana State at Vanderbilt and Mississippi state at Tulane.

Overshadowed by the Texas-Rice duel, a big Southwest conference game pits Texas Aggies against Baylor.

In the renewal of an old rivalry, Boston college edged Villanova 14-12 before 30,800 at Boston last night. In other leading Friday night contests, Detroit whipped Drake, 33-6, and the Oklahoma Aggies edged Texas Christian, 7-6, despite a 100-yard touchdown return of a kickoff by 150-pound Carl Knox for TCU's only score.

Cadets 21-Point Odds Favorite To Stop Duke

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—Despite Coach Earl Blaik's fears Army was a 21-point favorite over Duke today in the Cadets' first 1946 appearance in New York City.

A sellout crowd of more than 59,000 was assured as the Cadets went after their 24th victory in a row.

Duke, with a backfield that includes George Clark and Leo Long, was expected to give Army some tough opposition.

Arnold Tucker, Cadet quarterback who sat out most of last week's game with Columbia because of injuries, was ready to play. Glenn Davis and Herschel Fuson were slated to start at the halves and Doc Blanchard at the plunging post.

NATION'S LEADING RETURNER — Blond Bob Fenimore practices with his educated toe at Stillwater, Okla., home of Oklahoma A. and M. college. Fenimore is one of the nation's most dangerous safety men in college football this season. He has carried eight kickoffs back this season for a total of 213 yards.

3 Unbeaten Pro Football Teams Lay Records on Line

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 — Three teams, the Chicago Bears and Washington Redskins of the National Football league and the Cleveland Browns of the All-America conference, place their unbeaten records on the block tomorrow as the two professional loops approach the season's halfway mark.

The Browns, pacing the Western section of the newly organized circuit have racked up 180 points while yielding only 34 in winning seven straight. And in Cleveland tomorrow they meet the San Francisco Forty-Niners, the only club not yet on their victory string.

The bears, with only a tie with the Los Angeles Rams to mar an otherwise spotless four-game record, invade the Polo Grounds for the first time in three years to play the New York Giants. The Giants are two-touchdown underdogs.

The Redskins, also owning a record of three victories and a tie in four games will be host to the Philadelphia Eagles, who must win in order to remain in the running for the Eastern half title.

Other games include the Rams and Cards in Chicago, the Packers and Detroit Lions in Green Bay and the Pittsburgh Steelers and Yanks in Boston.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who lost a coach yesterday when Dr. Mal Stevens announced his resignation, went into their All-America conference game with the Miami Seahawks at Brooklyn last night under the direction of Assistant Coach Tom Scott and drubbed the Seahawks 30-7.

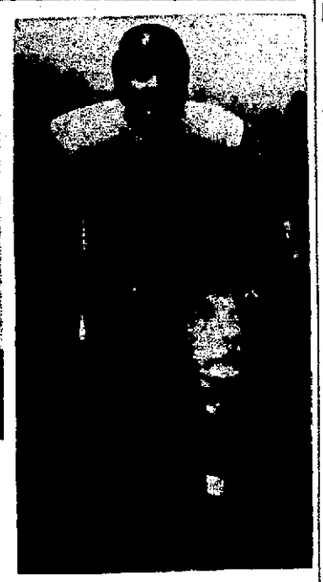
Besides the Cleveland - San Francisco contest, other Sunday conference games bring together the Chicago Rockets and the Bisons in Buffalo and the New York Yankees and the Dons in Los Angeles.

ALL-AMERICA FUTURE BOOK

WARREN AMLING
Buckeye Bulwark

Those who like their tackles big don't have to look beyond Warren Amling of Ohio State and George Savitsky of Penn. Both are among the tackles being considered for All-America berths this season.

Amling, a six-foot 197-pound senior, gained an All-America guard post last season while Savitsky, a 252-pounder wearing size 14½ shoes, was named on The Associated Press third team in 1945.



GEORGE SAVITSKY
Penn Pulverizer

Amling, 21, is from Pana, Ill., and captains the Buckeyes. Savitsky, an ex-Marine, comes from Camden, N. J., and could be Penn's first All-America tackle since Ed Hake gained the honor in 1927.

Ashley Methodist Church Circle Meets

Special to The Star

ASHLEY—The Volunteer Circle of Ashley Methodist church met Tuesday night, at the home of Mrs. Harry Wigton, with Mrs. Harold Shoemaker as co-hostess.

The devotions were in charge of Mrs. H. L. Borden, and Mrs. Clifford Logue conducted the study period, using India as her guide. Mrs. Bern Wornstaff, the president conducted the routine business.

Prayers were read by Mrs. Nettie Kiefer, Mrs. Effie Holt, Mrs. Cora Thatcher, Mrs. Anna Brandes and Mrs. Bertha Slack and Mrs. Stephens told a story of a native Indian boy. Mrs. Florence Smith reviewed a book.

Bethlehem Grange Welcomes Teachers

Special to The Star

PROSPECT — Teachers from Pleasant and Waldo schools were welcomed as guests Wednesday night when the Bethlehem Grange held a Booster night meeting.

The program presented included: recitations by Miss Jean Pogle, music by the Seiter brothers, a skit, "A Breakfast Scene" by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howald and a paper, "Sense and Nonsense" by Mrs. Ralph Williams. Greetings from the National Grange Master Goss, were read by the secretary, Miss Marie Bender. Mr. Swick, superintendent of Waldo school, gave a short talk.

A Halloween party is planned for the next meeting, with everyone coming masked. Prizes will be awarded for the best dressed, the ugliest and for the best looking couple.

Kenton Man Named Hardin Co. Scout Head

Special to The Star

KENTON, O., Oct. 25—Everett Cole of Kenton, long identified with Scouting in Hardin county, was named chairman of the Hardin District Boy Scout Council at a meeting in Kenton Wednesday night. He succeeds Carl Dickmeyer of Ada.

It was announced at the meeting that Hardin county Scouts have earned 138 merit badges; six have been advanced to Life Scout rank; ten to Star Scout rank; nine to First Class rank; and nine to Second Class rank.

Plans for a Traveling Circus were announced for the coming year. Under this plan a group from each district in the Shawnee Council will be selected to take part in the circus, which will be presented in each district center each evening for one week, during which time the Scouts will camp together.

Kenton Pork Roast Just Goes to Dogs

Special to The Star

KENTON, O., Oct. 26—Robert Hart, Kenton bank employe, secured a lovely pork roast recently—the first in several weeks—and took it home at noon for his wife to cook for dinner.

Rushing home from work with his mouth watering he was met at the door by his apologetic wife who informed him that their three-year-old son Billy had felt sorry for the family dog, Fanny, and fed her the roast while mama wasn't looking.

JOHN (THE GREEK) MASKAS, six feet of human dynamite in the Virginia Tech forward wall, has served notice he is after one of the tackle berths on the All-America team. His specialty is breaking through lines into the enemy backfield. He has professional offers and his coach, Jimmy Kitts, believes he's of All-America caliber.

Ladies' Aid Society Meets at Cardington

Special to The Star

CARDINGTON — The Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul Lutheran church met Thursday with Mrs. Catherine Rengert. Mrs. George Pender presided during the meeting. Devotionals, scripture reading and prayer was led by Rev. L. C. Florstedt. Lesson study topics were read by Mrs. Dott Kreis, Mrs. Sam Linstedt, Mrs. Fred Huebner and Mrs. Florstedt. Bible study by Rev. Florstedt.

During the business meeting a gift was given to Mrs. Florstedt for her new home at Obetz. She had been secretary the past year and had been treasurer for two years.

Plans were discussed for the annual Thansgiving market.

Mrs. Dott Kreis gave a report on the district meeting of "The Woman Missionary Federation" held at Willard.

Daughters of Union Veterans of Lady Sheridan Tent No. 50 held their annual inspection Monday evening.

Mrs. Pearl Schwartz of Marion, president of District No. 6, was the acting district deputy who inspected the work when three three members were added to the tent, two by initiation and one by reinstatement. Mrs. Alma Anderson of Marion, president of Harriett Beecher Stone Tent No. 48 was also a guest.

Eight past presidents were present. Mrs. Lila James, Mrs. Lola Stout, Mrs. Anna Abbey, Miss Edna Brennan, Mrs. Clara Snyder, Mrs. Stella Powers and Mrs. Elva Healea of Mt. Gilead and Mrs. Ollie Oborn of Waldo.

American Legion of Jenkins-Vaughn Post No. 97 held a progressive euchre with 10 tables in play.

Door prize went to Bill Bomberger of Edison.

High score to Mrs. Brynpt Wintermute of Mt. Gilead and Kenneth Haycock. Second high to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hollenshed. Lone hand prizes to Mrs. Leland Aliga and James Long.

Freak Bowling Green Score Highlights Ohio Grid Action

By The Associated Press

A Bowling Green university forward pass into Canisius college's end zone Friday night was batted down but bounded off a Canisius player who was on the ground and into the hands of a prone Bee Gee gridder to give Bowling Green a freak touchdown and a 13 to 7 decision at Buffalo.

That highlighted activities of Buckeye college gridders Friday as Findlay blanked Adrian, Mich. 13-0; Marietta whitewashed Wilmington 18-0; and Capital university scored its first triumph of the season in an afternoon game with Kenyon, 8 to 6.

Canisius scored on a 65-yard march in the first quarter, and Vernon Dunham carried an intercepted pass 76 yards in the third period for a Bowling Green touchdown. The score was 7-6 when Jack Freitas passed from the Canisius 17 into the end zone in the final period.

Quarterback Bob Agnew of Canisius knocked the ball earthward, but it bounded off left halfback Darrell Bratz of the Griffins, who was lying on his back in the end zone. Mark Welker, Bowling Green right end, who was also on the ground, grabbed the pigskin before it touched dirt.

The Bowling Green victory was the team's third in five starts; and so were Findlay and Marietta's home triumphs Friday night.

Mystery Story Plays At Ohio

"Cloak and Dagger" Stars Gary Cooper and French Actress.

"Cloak and Dagger," packed with suspense and thrills, stars Gary Cooper and the famous European actress, Lilli Palmer, and features Robert Alda. It is now playing through Monday at the Ohio theater.

The exciting story of what happens when a mild-tempered man of knowledge is faced with the sudden need to become a man of action is told in the picture, with Gary Cooper playing Alvah Jesper, a professor in a small New England university. When Jesper is required to engage in a secret detective operation involving dangerous risks on his life, his first job is to search for Katerin Lodor. He then stumbles into murder. During the crisis, Jesper discovers an unexpected source of aid.

Vivian Blaine, Perry Como, Harry James and Carmen Miranda are the music-minded quartet involved in the new musical hit, "If I'm Lucky," which will be shown for seven days starting Tuesday at the Ohio theater.

Set against the background of an exciting election campaign, the film tells the adventures of a girl vocalist, a crooner and a hot trumpeter who find themselves all mixed up in love and politics in an effort to make the "big time."

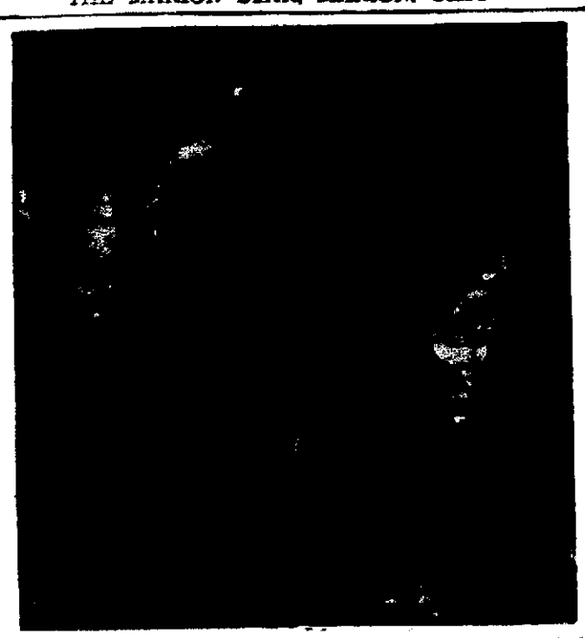
Romance is the real issue involved in "If I'm Lucky" with Como and James matching voice against horn for the affections of Miss Blaine. With Perry emerging as the sure winner, he is blackmailed into running for the office of governor when the political bosses discover that his singing at election rallies is attracting more attention than the speeches of the candidates, whom the bosses quickly drop. As a result of this, Perry's chances with Vivian are practically wrecked as she has ambitions for herself and the band in a radio show of their own.

Abbott, Costello at State Theater Sunday, Monday

"Twice Blessed" with Lee and Lyn Wilde and James Craig, and "Little Giant" starring Abbott and Costello will be shown Sunday and Monday at the State theater.

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday is "National Velvet" starring Mickey Rooney and Jackie Jenkins and "Penthouse Rhythm" with Kirby Grant and Lois Collier.

The double feature for Thursday through Saturday will be "Salty O'Rourke" starring Alan Ladd and Gail Russell, and "Colorado Serenade" with Eddie Dean and Mary Kenyon.



JANE POWELL and Walter Pidgeon appear with Roddy McDowall, Ilona Massey, Jose Iturbi, and Xavier Cugat and his orchestra in the technicolor production "Holiday in Mexico" which will be shown Sunday through Wednesday at the Palace theater.

"Holiday in Mexico," in Color, Coming To Palace Theater

"Holiday in Mexico," the new technicolor musical production, stars Walter Pidgeon with Jose Iturbi, Roddy McDowall, Jane Powell, Ilona Massey and Xavier Cugat and his orchestra. It will be shown Sunday through Wednesday at the Palace theater.

Short features will include a technicolor novelty, "Goal Rush," and the latest Paramount News.

The story, concerned with the lives of a United States ambassador to Mexico, Jeffrey Evans, played by Walter Pidgeon, and his daughter, Christine, played by Jane Powell, has Mexico City as its colorful setting and moves from the various embassies to the night clubs, and concludes at a brilliant fiesta.

Christine, who runs her father's household, feels that her father cannot get along without her, and pays no attention to Roddy McDowell who is in love with her. When she discovers that her father is in love with Ilona Massey, a glamorous night club singer, she turns to Jose Iturbi who comforts her. Consequently, she believes herself in love with him.

Her father and Iturbi try to convince Christine that she is all mixed up, but she pays no attention to them until Iturbi cooks up a scheme, which includes his two granddaughters, to cure Christine of her infatuation.

Margaret O'Brien as a lovable Irish waif in "Three Wise Fools," and "Earl Carroll Sketchbook" with Constance Moore and William Marshall, will be shown Thursday through Saturday.

The former tells of the adventures of Sheila O'Monahan, a tiny Irish girl, who comes to America to be adopted by three unwilling godfathers, played by Lionel Barrymore, Lewis Stone and Edward Arnold. The three men try to put over a deal involving Sheila's property, but she refuses to give up her deed when she learns it will include cutting down an old oak tree housing a tribe of pixies. Sheila believes that these fairies watch over her destiny and give her aid. When they try to fool her into giving it up she runs away.

Mystery Thriller And Musical on Marion Program

An exciting mystery thriller, "O. S. S.," and a musical drama, "It Happened in New Orleans," will be shown Sunday and Monday at the Marion theater.

The former starring Alan Ladd and Geraldine Fritzgerald tells of an undercover operating team known as "Applejack" whose orders are to blow up a bridge in France in preparation for the D-Day landing. Included in the team are Ladd and Miss Fritzgerald. Starred in the latter are May Robson, Charles Butterworth, Benita Hume, Alan Mowbray, Louise Beavers and Bobby Breen. It tells of a young waif who was raised in the southland by a devoted Negro servant and taken away to live in New York with a wealthy Yankee grandmother, and of how he longed to return to the humble cabin where he was raised.

"Second Chorus" starring Paulette Goddard and Fred Astaire, and "One Romantic Night" with Ilona Massey and Alan Curtis will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday.

Sidney Toler as Charlie Chan in "Dangerous Money" and "Rustler's Round-Up" with Kirby Grant, Jane Adams and Fuzzy Knight will be shown Thursday through Saturday.

In the former, Chan finds himself mixed up with the puzzling knife murder of an F. B. I. agent who is investigating the transfer of stolen currency and art treasures from the Philippines. The murder occurs on the high seas and other murders are committed before Chan identifies the killers. Kirby Grant is starred in the latter as a straight shooting U. S. marshal who brings law and order to the settlement of Rawhide City.

COMMITTEES NAMED FOR ARMISTICE DAY

Will Plan Marion Observance for Nov. 11.

Committees were named and plans made to hold a parade in observance of Armistice day at a meeting of the Armistice day committee Thursday night in the Legion Dugout. Patriotic, civic, fraternal and service groups and individuals are asked to join in the observance and take part in the parade scheduled for 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Plans include transportation for service men, who because of physical handicaps, are unable to march and the committee urges all veterans to take part in the observances. The parade will form at 7 o'clock with George T. Geran as marshal.

James E. Messenger was re-elected chairman of the committee, Charles Morbitt, vice chairman and Arden Rizor, secretary. Harry G. Baker was named chairman of a committee to arrange for bands and parade music. John Moore, floats, Charles Morbitt, transportation for veterans, Louis E. Michel, finance, and Chief William E. Marks, traffic.

Final plans for the observance will be made at a meeting of the committee at 1:30 o'clock Nov. 8.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
BID FOR SEWER CONSTRUCTION

Sealed bids for the construction of sanitary and storm water sewers on Clinton Street will be received by the Safety-Service Director of the City of Marion, Ohio, at his office in the City Building until 12 o'clock noon Eastern Standard Time on Nov. 4, 1946, and at that time and place will be publicly opened and read.

The work for which bids are invited consists of the construction of approximately 8374 linear feet of 4" to 24" diameter vitrified shale pipe sewers and approximately 1460 linear feet of 36" to 42" diameter reinforced concrete pipe sewers, together with manholes, catch basins, concrete retaining walls, repaving and other appurtenant work.

Copies of the advertisement, information for bidders, estimated quantities, contract, specifications, performance bond are on file in the office of the City Engineer and available for inspection by prospective bidders.

Each bid must contain the full name of every person or company interested in the same, and be accompanied by a certified check on a solvent bank in the sum of $500.00, made payable to the order of The Safety-Service Director of the City of Marion, Ohio, as a guarantee that if the bid is accepted, a contract will be entered into and its performance properly secured. The check shall be forfeited if the said bidder fails to enter into a contract with the City of Marion, Ohio, and to furnish the required bond within fifteen days after notice of acceptance of his bid, if the award is made to said bidder. Bidders are required to use the printed forms which will be furnished on application.

Bids for labor and material must be separate and sealed in envelopes plainly marked "Bids for Clinton Street sanitary and storm water sewers."

A performance bond of 50% of the amount of the contract, with a satisfactory corporate surety, will be required for the faithful performance of the work.

Should any bid be rejected, the accompanying check will be returned to the bidder forthwith, and should any bid be accepted, the check will be returned upon the proper execution and securing of the contract upon demand therefor.

The right is reserved by the City of Marion, Ohio, to reject any or all bids.

ORDINANCE NO. 4838
TO LEVY SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF YORK STREET FROM FIES AVE. TO WATERLOO ST. BY CONSTRUCTING A SANITARY AND STORM WATER SEWER.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Marion, State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That the assessment of the cost and expense of improving York St. from Fies Ave. to Waterloo St. by constructing a sanitary and storm water sewer, amounting in the aggregate to $1137.80 as reported to this Council on the 26th day of August, 1946 by the City Engineer, notice of the filing of which assessment has been given as required by law, be and the same is hereby adopted and confirmed, and that there be and there is hereby levied and assessed upon the lots and lands bounding and abutting upon said improvement the several amounts reported as aforesaid, which assessments, together with the description of said lots and lands are now on file in the office of the Clerk of this Council, and which assessments are at the rate of $6.20 per front foot, and are not in excess of the special benefits to said property and are not in excess of any statutory limitation.

SECTION 2. That the total assessment against each lot or parcel of land shall be payable in cash within thirty days from and after the passage of this ordinance, or, at the option of the owner, in ten (10) semi-annual installments with interest at the same rate as shall be borne by the bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of the same. All cash payments shall be made to the Treasurer of said City. All assessments and installments thereof remaining unpaid at the expiration of said thirty days shall be certified by the Clerk of this Council to the County Auditor, as provided by law, to be by him placed on the tax duplicate and collected as other taxes are collected.

SECTION 3. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

NOTICE

In the Court of Common Pleas of Marion County, Ohio, Case No. 29075.

Marion E. Hinklin, County Treasurer of Marion County, Ohio, Plaintiff, vs. J. H. Whisler, et al, Defendants.

J. H. Whisler, who is one and the same person as J. H. Wimsler and ——— Whisler, wife of said J. H. Whisler, whose given name is unknown, and the unknown heirs, devisees and legatees, if any, of the said J. H. Whisler, each of whose place of residence is unknown and cannot be ascertained, will take notice that on the 25th day of October, 1946, Marion E. Hinklin, Treasurer of Marion County, Ohio, Plaintiff, filed his Petition against the aforenamed Defendants in the Court of Common Pleas of Marion County, Ohio; the same being Cause Number 29075 in said Court for the foreclosure of a lien for taxes and assessments on certain real estate described in said Petition, to wit:

Situated in the County of Marion, State of Ohio and City of Marion and known as being Lot Number One Thousand Five Hundred and Thirty Seven (1537) in Tree's 3rd Addition to said City of Marion, Ohio, as the same is shown on the Plat Records of Marion County, Ohio, on file with the County Recorder of said County in Plat Book 2 page 66. Being the same premises conveyed to said J. H. Whisler by Edwin M. Jackman in Deed Volume 118 page 519, Records of Deeds, Marion County, Ohio.

That the prayer of said Petition is for the foreclosure and sale of said real estate to pay said tax lien.

Said Defendants are required to answer said Petition on or before the 7th day of December, 1946 or judgment will be rendered against them.

Marion E. Hinklin, Treasurer of Marion County, Ohio.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

IN Harry Underwood's voice there was the distilled contempt which strong men have for weaklings. Men like Lillian's husbands and mine, whether their acts are good or evil, do not shift the consequence of those acts to other shoulders. Praise, censure, rewards, punishment, they take them in their stride, and reserve their harshest judgments for the men who get panic-stricken when the nemesis of their deeds overtakes them.

"I always guessed Sam Brixton was a first-class louse," Harry went on, "but I didn't think he'd hide behind the skirts of a girl."

"I don't think he meant to bring Marion into any danger," I said, with an impulse to defend the man who was paying so dearly for his youthful criminal folly.

"For the love of Gabriel and his trumpet, don't you go defending him!" Harry adjured me impatiently. "You know as well as I do that the Sam Brixtons of this world never mean to do anything wrong. They just go into a blue funk when Fate catches up with them, and grab the nearest anchor.

All Over Now

"But that's all water down the spout now," he went on. "What I want to get at is the thing that's eating Marion's heart out now."

He stopped and gave me a quick searching look.

"You agree with me, don't you, that Lil has no knowledge of whatever is troubling Marion, that she's simply on edge because she sees how nervous and terror-stricken the poor girl is."

"Oh, absolutely!" I said quickly, for he simply was voicing my own belief. "And, of course, she has cause enough for fear after what she went through when Marion—"

"Had her last quixotic brainstorm over helping out a Brixton," he finished for me. Then a softened look came into his eyes.

"They don't come any sweeter or braver than Marion," he said, "or,"—a twisted grin touched his lips—"any more of a damned fool."

Secretly Agrees

I secretly agreed with him, but knew that while he could voice that opinion of his idolized stepdaughter himself, he wanted no "seconding of the motion" from my corner.

"She's in splendid company," I told him smiling. "All the saints and martyrs, you know—"

"Yes, and every one of 'em died young," he said quickly. "Now, let's get back to our little sheeplets. Have you any idea what it is that's giving Marion the jitters?"

"No, I haven't," I told him, "that is, I haven't any foundation for an idea,—yet—"

My voice faltered, and he rose abruptly.

"Don't you dare to walk out on me now," he said, coming over to my chair and gripping my shoulders in his powerful hands. "I'd trust your intuition against a dozen scientific formulas. Come on! Give! Spoon lentils, pronto!"

He released his grip and stepped back a pace. But he did not sit down and I knew that he was too engrossed with the problem confronting him for any semblance of repose.

"One of two things may be troubling her—or possibly both," I said slowly. "Carolyn may be in some sort of scrape again, or—Sam may have told her something—asked her to do something—which she feels in honor bound not to mention, but of course cannot do for him as long as she is in 'protective custody' down here."

"And in 'protective custody' by the Eternal, is where she's going to stay until this mess is cleared up," he said vehemently. "She's got her mother's brain and resourcefulness when it comes to getting other people out of trouble, but she's also got Lil's complete disregard of self. However, she's safe here, don't you think?"

LET'S GET THIS STRAIGHT, PRANKSTER. WHILE YOU WERE UNCONSCIOUS FROM A TUMBLE, YOU HAD A VISION PREDICTING I WOULD RESCUE THE "SILVER FLASH" TRAIN FROM DESTRUCTION THIS AFTERNOON?
RIGHT, SILLY, ISN'T IT? NOW I MUST RETURN TO MY OFFICE IN THE TRENTON BUILDING. I'M AN HONEST BUSINESS MAN NOW, YOU KNOW.
CHANGING TO KENT, THE MAN OF STEEL REJOINS LOIS...
SO HERE YOU ARE! I HAD TROUBLE GETTING THRU THE CROWD.
LISTEN TO THIS! THE PRANKSTER HAS PREDICTED SUPERMAN WILL RESCUE A TRAIN FROM DISASTER THIS AFTERNOON!
HA! HA! IT'S EVIDENT THE PRANKSTER IS AS FULL OF JOKES AS EVER!
SUPERMAN WON'T GIVE IT A SECOND THOUGHT!
PERHAPS, LOIS, AND THEN AGAIN—PERHAPS NOT!

WHY YOU FIEND—
OUT OF MY WAY, GRANDMA!
WHERE ARE THEY? WHERE ARE THOSE NEGATIVES?
MEANWHILE, UNAWARE OF THE GUNPLAY TAKING PLACE IN THE DRUGSTORE, THE MESONG HASTENS ON.
YEAH, THAT'S THE PLACE. YOU BOYS START TAKING OUT THE BROKEN GLASS WHILE I BACK THIS BABY IN.

Gasoline Alley

THE PRICE OF THE HOUSE IS $7,125, UNCLE WALT. THAT MEANS I'VE GOT TO RAISE THAT AMOUNT PRETTY PROMPTLY.
AUNTIE BLOSSOM AND I HAVE SOMETHING TO SUGGEST.
HERE'S WHAT WE ARE WILLING TO DO—LEND YOU WHAT YOU NEED ON YOUR NOTE, AT THE USUAL INTEREST.
YOU COULD GET A G.I. LOAN, BUT WE THOUGHT YOU MIGHT LIKE TO HAVE IT ALL IN THE FAMILY.
GEE!
THAT WOULD BE WONDERFUL! I CAN'T WAIT TO TELL NINA.

Joe Palooka

By Ham Fisher

YOU MUST BE PRETTY WORN OUT WITH NO SLEEP.
I FEEL ALL RIGHT, MR. WRARE, I'M VERY ANXIOUS TO START.
HERE COMES A RIDER. SURE COMIN' FAST OR THAT LOOKS ROCK! WHEW

CHOPS, THAT LEFT ENGINE SHOULD BE PULLED! IT'S HAD MORE HOURS THAN—
TISH, TERRY! IF WE PULLED IT WE'D JUST FIND SOMETHING THAT NEEDS TO BE FIXED!...THERE'S A JOB COMING UP!...
I THOUGHT MY BEARD LOOKED MORE LIKE FEATHERS THAN HAIR THIS MORNING! IT'S REAL NICE OF YOU TO ALLOW US TO COME TO THE GROUND TO REFUEL!
DON'T BEEF, FLYBOYS! YOU'RE TO FILE A FLIGHT PLAN FOR THIS BIRD!
SOUNDS LIKE A BLIND TO OL' HOTSHOT! YOU MEAN THAT'S WHERE THE REAL MONKEYSHINES BEGIN!
REMEMBER THAT PLACE, CHAZZ?
...OH, SURE! THAT'S WHERE WE CROSSED INTO INDO-CHINA TO SET UP THE NAVY RADIO BEACON DURING THE WAR!
AND RIGHT THERE WAS WHERE OLD SNAKE TUMBLIN WENT DOWN...
...SAY, CHOPS, JUST WHO ARE WE CARRYING ON THIS FLIGHT?

Blondie

By Chic Young

I'M SO TIRED—I HAD SUCH A HARD TIME AT THE OFFICE TODAY
AFTER YOU WASH UP AND HAVE A NICE SUPPER YOU'LL FEEL BETTER
YOU WERE RIGHT, BLONDIE—I FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN
BUT EVEN THE NEW MAN IS A LITTLE TIRED

A PRETTY PASS INDEED! OLD-TIMER NEVER RETURNED MY LETTER AND THE DUCK SEASON IS SLIPPING AWAY—BY GOLLY! I'M GOING TO SPEAK RIGHT UP TO MIN!
YOU'VE BEEN JUMPY AND NERVOUS AS A KITTEN, LATELY—YOU NEED A CHANGE—WHY DON'T YOU RUN DOWN TO SHADY REST FOR THE DUCK SEASON?
WH!
A VISITOR, MR. OLD-TIMER!
YOU'RE PRETTY SPRY FOR A RHEUMATIC, YOU FAKER!
